

(Jessen-Miller Studio picture)

THEY PLAN PROGRAM

AN EVENT interesting a large group next week-end is the table setting contest sponsored by the Salem YWCA. On the program committee for this event are Mrs. Reynolds Allen, at left, and Mrs. Otto Skopli, Jr. Proceeds go to the YW building fund.

At Convention

Delegates from Salem who will attend the state convention of Business and Professional Women's clubs in Grants Pass, May 15 to 17, are Miss Mildred Yetter, Miss Betty Eloffson, Mrs. George Causey, Mrs. Eugene E. Wooten and Mrs. Louis Neuman.

Mrs. David E. Fulwider of Hollywood, Calif., national education and vocations chairman, will represent the national federation at the conference. She will be speaker at the banquet on Saturday, May 16.

Several hundred delegates from over the state are expected to attend the sessions, the theme being "The Ramparts We Build." Officers for the Oregon Federation will be elected on Saturday. Mrs. John Versteeg of Salem is to be inspector of elections.

Final meeting of the Grant school Mothers club will be on Thursday at the school at 1:15 o'clock. There will be election of officers and annual reports by committee chairmen.

Sixth grade students who are graduating this year will be honored and other guests will be mothers of first grade children who will enter school next fall.

Members of the executive board will serve refreshments following the meeting. Mrs. Paul Silke entertained board members at her home earlier in the week.

Installing new officers at West Salem Woman's club on Thursday will be Mrs. N. Edward Shaw. Mrs. Stanton Zelman is the new president; Mrs. R. C. Cameron, vice-president; Mrs. Carl Oieen, secretary; Mrs. Darrel Bradford, treasurer.

Musical selections will be presented by students from Sacred Heart academy and refreshments will be served by Mrs. N. Edward Shaw, Mrs. Donald Kuhn, Mrs. Jack Taggart and Mrs. Guy Newgent.

The meeting is at 8 o'clock.

Meeting Thursday evening at the Golden Pheasant will be Salem Toastmistress club. Miss Constance Weinman to be toastmistress for the dinner event. Mrs. George Beane will give the table topics.

Speaking will be Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Alberta Shoemaker, Mrs. J. B. Hansen and Mrs. Louis Neuman. Miss Ruth Jaynes will be general evaluator and time keeper is Mrs. J. M. Hartley.

Catholic Daughters of America, court Capital City, will elect new officers at its meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday, at the Catholic Center.

Board meeting for the YWCA will be Tuesday at 9:45 a.m. at the YW. The group will discuss plans for the table setting contest May 15-17, and the annual tea on June 4. Progress of the new building will also be covered.

Amateur Artists association of America will meet at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday at the YMCA.

Mrs. L. Earl Watson will entertain members of the Accent club at her home, 1190 North 24th, on Thursday at 8 o'clock. Co-hostess is Mrs. Jack Williams.

(Jessen-Miller Studio picture)

COMMITTEE ARRANGES FOR CONTEST

GATHERING in the garden at the Robert W. Gormsen home this week were these four committee members assisting in plans for the table setting contest of the YWCA, May 15, 16, and 17, at Valley Motor company building. Left to right: Mrs. Harold Schick, receiving some of the tickets for the event; Mrs. Gormsen, who is general chairman for the contest; Mrs. James R. Phillips and Mrs. Rollin Haag.

Table Arrangement Contest of YW Top Event of Week; Opens Friday

About 35 entries will be set up for the table arrangement contest being sponsored by Salem YWCA next week-end as means of raising additional funds for the new YW building now under construction.

The contest will be conducted through Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 15, 16 and 17, the tables to be set up in the show rooms at Valley Motor company.

Four divisions for organizations are set up for the event. One is for a reception or a bridal table; the second is for a tea or coffee party table; a third is for a dinner or luncheon table, the fourth for an outdoor or patio party table.

A fifth division is open to individuals only, and is for any occasion table—tea, after dinner coffee, a children's birthday, a foreign table, or other theme. Winners in the contest will be determined by those attending the show, each admission ticket providing a vote. The table receiving the most votes will win the prize.

There is a $25 cash prize in each of the four organizational divisions. The prizes are being donated by Better Bedding store, Roberts Brothers, Hogg Brothers, Allen Hardware company, and Miller's.

For the occasion table division for individuals, a gift prize is being provided, donated by the Gift Box.

Firms providing materials for the show include Pomeroy and Keene, the Gift Box, Better Bedding store, Allen Hardware company and Miller's. The Hallmark shop is providing table accessories.

Tables for the settings are being furnished by Hogg Brothers, Stiff's, Hamilton's and Miller's furniture department.

The show opens at 1 p.m. Friday, to be open until 9 o'clock that evening. On Saturday and Sunday the show will be open between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. The balloting will be counted at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Many interesting themes are being worked out for the tables, reports Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, general chairman for the show. For example, the Saddle club, with Mrs. Fred Anunson as chairman, is doing a car picnic setting. The First Congregational guild women are arranging a bridal table. The Welcome Wagon, with Mrs. Floyd A. Baker as chairman, is an organization for newcomers to the city and they have interesting plans for their table. It will be a dinner table all in silver.

Social committee for Cherry court, Order of Amaranth, on Wednesday will include Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binegar, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sientz and Miss Evelyn Stark. The group will meet at 8 o'clock at the Scottish Rite temple.

Hostesses at the Thursday meeting of Salem unit, American Legion auxiliary, will be Mrs. Walter G. Esplin and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor. Mrs. Bert Walker will give the recommendations of the nominating committee when the group meets at 8 o'clock at the Woman's club house.

FORUM will make up the program for the regular meeting of Salem unit of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Senator hotel.

On the panel will be Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mrs. William S. Van Meter, Mrs. Charles Low, Mrs. Feery T. Buren. Mrs. James T. Brand is to be the moderator.

Mrs. Effie Olson of Roseburg, department president, will be honored by Barbara Frietchie tent, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, at a luncheon and meeting on Friday. The group will meet at the Gold Arrow restaurant at 12:30 o'clock and the business session will follow at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Meeting at 7:30 p.m. at the Scottish Rite temple on Monday will be Bethel No. 43 of Job's Daughters. There will be initiation and presentation of the majority degree.

Members will bring pies to Salem chapter meeting, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple on Saturday, for a benefit auction at 8 o'clock.

(Jessen-Miller Studio picture)

PLAN FOR COFFEE PARTY

ON THE committee planning the coffee to be given by Mothers club of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, are the three above, left to right: Mrs. Carl M. Quistad, Mrs. Arnold Johnson and Mrs. Virgil Sexton. The party will be next Tuesday morning at the Quistad home on Cascade Drive.

Coffee Tuesday Honors Mothers

Honoring mothers of Job's Daughters in Salem, and mothers of members of Chemeketa chapter, Order of DeMolay for Boys, the Mothers club of Rainbow Girls has arranged a coffee party to be on Tuesday.

The affair will be at the home of Mrs. Carl M. Quistad, president of Rainbow Mothers club, the hours to be from 10:30 until 1:30 o'clock.

Assisting with the arrangements are Mrs. Paul Griebenow, Mrs. Vincent Neal, Mrs. Zina Sharpnack, Mrs. Arnold Johnson, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. Max Muller, Mrs. Louis Lorenz, Mrs. C. A. Rust, Mrs. G. E. Osko, Mrs. A. D. Shields, Mrs. Loring Grier, Mrs. R. J. Seeger, Mrs. Wayne Walls, Mrs. Jack Kuhn, Mrs. C. E. Lee, Mrs. W. H. Merrill, Mrs. Merle Phillips, Mrs. Eldon Scott, Mrs. H. F. Roseler, Mrs. Robert Hansen, Mrs. H. J. Gillespie, Mrs. E. H. K. Dorr, Mrs. R. J. Searcy and Mrs. Karl Wenger.

Speaker at the annual banquet honoring mothers and daughters at Christ Lutheran church on Tuesday will be the Rev. Victor Hugo Sward. His topic will be "Women of India."

Others on the program include Mrs. George Johnson who will give a short talk, Mrs. Herbert Hamman who is to sing, Misses Barbara Gronke and Betty Johnson will sing a duet.

Mrs. George Johnson is chairman of the event and assisting with the arrangements are Mrs. Warren Nunn, Mrs. Lester Byrnelson, Mrs. Evelyn Hamby and Mrs. Otto Roller.

Social afternoon group of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet for dessert at the Masonic temple on Tuesday at 1:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Rex Hartley will sing and piano numbers and humorous readings will be given by Mac Baker of Salem senior high school.

Assisting Mrs. Effie King, chairman, with the refreshments will be Mrs. E. E. Bergman, Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mrs. Fred Keeler, Mrs. F. H. Collins, Mrs. J. B. Schaller, Mrs. George E. Hanson, Mrs. Benjamin Knight and Mrs. B. W. Stacey.

Attending a district meeting in Newberg on Monday and Tuesday will be several members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft of Salem. Delegates are Mrs. J. H. Igeheart, guardian neighbor, Mrs. G. H. Edwards, Miss Pearl Bairey, Mrs. C. E. Shaw, Mrs. Hallie Lynch and Mrs. Coza Smith. District officers who will be present include Mrs. J. McNell, musician, and Russell Winchcomb, past guardian neighbor, both of Salem.

An event of interest for Monday evening will be the sonata recital to be presented by Ethel Lou Stanek, cello, and Catharine W. Schnell, pianist, in Waller hall auditorium at 8:15 o'clock. The interested public is invited.

Program for the evening is as follows:

Sonata No. 2 in D for viola da gamba and klavier Each

Adagio
Allegro
Andante
Allegro

II
Sonata Op. 69 in A for piano and cello Beethoven

Allegro, ma non tanta
Scherzo
Adagio cantabile
Allegro vivace

III
First Sonata Op. 38 in E minor for cello and piano Brahms

Allegro non troppo
Allegretto quasi Minuetto
Allegro

IV
Three Concert Pieces for cello and piano James Ming

Capriccio
Meditation
Animated

"You'll Remember Oregon" is the title of a movie to be shown at the Business and Professional Women's club on Tuesday. The group will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the Woman's club house where they will discuss vacation plans following the movie.

Mrs. LeMar Hobbs is in charge of the program and Mrs. Thomas G. Lovett is in charge of refreshments.

AAUW Event

Thursday evening, May 14, will mark the last meeting of the year for the Salem branch of American Association of University Women. The occasion will be one honoring the graduating senior women of Willamette university and will be at 8 p.m. at Baxter hall on the Willamette campus.

The program announced by Miss Eleonor Roberts will feature the Modern Dance group of Oregon State college under the direction of Miss Betty Lynd Thompson, associate professor of women's physical education. Miss Thompson is an authority on interpretive dancing and has written a textbook on the subject. She has studied with such famous artist-dancers as Martha Graham and Hana Holm. Her undergraduate study was done at Wesley university in Bloomington, Illinois and she received her masters degree from the University of Wisconsin. The Modern Dance group has toured throughout the state of Oregon, given guest appearances in Canada and has appeared in every high school in Portland.

Mrs. Lawrence C. Merriam, Jr. will give a brief talk for the senior women on the meaning of the AAUW fellowship program. During the short business meeting election of officers for next year will be conducted.

Punch and cookies will be served following the program and those presiding at the punch bowls will include Mrs. Paul Frost, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, Mrs. A. M. Strohbehn and Mrs. Robert F. Nichols. Members of the executive board will serve as hostesses for the evening. No reservations are necessary to attend the affair.