Miss Jasmer Bride at Lebanon Service

Lebanon — At an afternoon ceremony on May 3, Miss Debra E. Jasmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jasmer, was wed to Donald J. Nofziger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris J. Nofziger. The service was performed in a setting of pink and white flowers at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Lighting the candles were Miss Barbara Jean Jasmer, sister of the bride, and Miss Linda Jay Nofziger, the bridegroom's sister.

The bride wore a white tulle and net dress and carried a Bible on which lay a cluster of red rosebuds. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Mary Lou Simpson, wearing a blue taffeta and net, was maid of honor.

Best man was Jean Hayes of Lebanon.

A reception followed the ceremony, 100 guests attending. At the refreshment table, Mrs. Bernard Hazen and Mrs. Marvin Bishop poured, and Mrs. Lelela Jasmer, grandmother of the bride, served the cake.

After their return from their wedding trip, the young couple will make their home on the Nofziger farm near Lebanon.

Luncheon for Club

Dallas—A luncheon at the home of Mrs. Paul Morgan recently served as the last meeting for the art appreciation section of the Dallas Woman's club. Places were set for Mrs. Allie Hennagin, Mrs. William Duncan, Mrs. O. E. Anderson, Mrs. Cecil Meeker, Mrs. C. L. Marsters, Mrs. R. G. LeFors, Mrs. Dean Forbes, and the hostess, Mrs. Paul Morgan.

Centering the table was an arrangement for flowers and candles made by Mrs. R. C. LeFors. The members presented Mrs. Dean Forbes, leader of the group, with a gift, and further studied modern painters. The work of Paul Nash, contemporary British painter, was introduced to the group.

Each member chose a small print from Mrs. Forbes' collection as a memento of the class.

Rainbow Event

Woodburn — Evergreen assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will elect new officers at the regular meeting Wednesday, May 13, beginning at 7:30 p.m., at the Masonic temple. After the meeting, the girls will enjoy a "dutch treat" at the Coney Island restaurant.

District Meeting

Salem Heights — Santiam district meeting of the Federation of Garden clubs will be May 18, at the American Legion hall at Corvallis.

Registrations will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the morning session will be a garden workshop. In the afternoon, Ralph Garren will be the guest speaker and will speak on day lilies.

Suing-Zolnowsky Wedding Recently

Lebanon—Wed on the morning of May 4 at St. Edward's Catholic church were Miss Violet Zolnowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zolnowsky, and Romon C. Suing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Suing, all of Lebanon.

Performing the single ring ceremony and nuptial high mass was the Rev. Pius P. Baur, The St. Edwards choir sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with full train, finger length veil, and carried a white prayer book on which lay an orchid.

Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Beverly Zolnowsky, who wore a frock of frosted organza over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Clarice Rohla, cousin of the bride, and Miss Rose Marie Suing, the bridegroom's sister.

Berald Suing, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Tom Bartosz and Bob McGavin.

A reception for a large number of friends and relatives was given in the church parlors.

For the wedding trip to points south, Mrs. Suing wore a blue dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Lebanon high school. Mr. Suing is now employed in the lumber industry.

The Corvallis Garden club will be in charge with the Philomath Garden club providing the program. Mrs. D. E. Branson, 1363 Taylor, in Corvallis, will take reservations until May 13. This is for all federated garden clubs, or any garden club interested in flowers.

OUT ON A LIMB!

Yep... I am really out on a limb! The boss left town for three days and left instructions for me to sell some merchandise... or else. By gosh I am going to do it too... of course I will be worse than out on a limb when he sees what I did to the prices on his precious carpet, but for three days I'm going to live high. So drop around folks and see what I can offer you that the boss can't.

Sincerely,
DON.
