NINE-GUN BROADSIDE AIMED AT REDS

With her decks stripped for action, the battleship USS New Jersey fires a rare nine-gun broadside at target on the east coast of North Korea. This unusual aerial photo shows the huge side wake caused by the push of her big 16-inch rifles. The New Jersey has laid her guns on Communist targets which include strikes against Chongjin, Songjin, Kojo, and Wonsan. The ship is commanded by Capt. Charles L. Melson of Richmond, Va. (U. S.
