

Miss Klein Bride at Ceremony in St. Mary's

Mt. Angel — Miss Clotilda Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Klein, and Vincent Spenner, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spenner of Stayton, were wed Saturday morning, May 9, in St. Mary's Catholic church here. The Rev. Clement Frank, OSB, officiated at the 8:30 o'clock nuptial high mass in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Serving as altar boys were Kenneth Wachter and Patrick Fisher.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress of nylon tulle over slipper satin was designed with a Chantilly lace bodice; and off-the-shoulder scalloped neckline, filled with yoke of illusion, was outlined with a pearl and sequin trim. The bouffant nylon tulle over satin skirt was ankle length. A net scoop hat adorned with pleated lace and pearls held a double fingertip veil of nylon tulle. The bride wore a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and her bouquet was a heart-shaped arrangement of baby roses and white carnations.

Sister Attended
Miss Veronica Klein was maid of honor for her sister. She was attired in a ballerina length gown of pink nylon net over taffeta, with a matching bolero of lace. She wore a matching headband of taffeta and tulle, adorned with pink rosebuds, and her bouquet was a heart shaped arrangement of yellow carnations.

The bridesmaid was Miss Rosalie Harpole, who was attired in a yellow ballerina length dress of nylon tulle over taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice, net yoke and full skirt. Her matching headpiece was identical to the honor attendant's, and her bouquet was a heart shaped arrangement of pink carnations.

Joseph Spenner, Stayton, was best man for his brother, and groomsmen were Francis Riser of Stayton. Ushering the guests were Benny Spenner, Stayton, and Joseph Klein, brother of the bride.

The altars in the church were decorated with arrangements of white spray, peonies, Calla lilies and white and pink snapdragons, with tall lighted tapers. Potted palms were used in the sanctuary.

The St. Mary's choir sang. Miss Helen Keber was organist, and Miss Bertha Hasting and Miss Annella Bauman sang before the ceremony and again preceding the recessional.

Breakfast Follows
For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Klein wore a navy blue dress, a hat of natural straw, accented by matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's aunt, Miss Minnie Van Handle, of Stayton, chose a green dress with matching accessories, and her flowers were also pink carnations.

Following the church ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room of St. Mary's school. Covers were placed for the Rev. Father Clement, the bride party and members of the two families. Assisting in serving were Miss Bertha Hasting, Miss Annella Bauman and Miss Della Schaffner.

For the afternoon reception, the rooms were decorated with baskets and arrangements of white spray, lilies and snapdragons. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered decorated wedding cake, surrounded by a ring of white and pink blooms. Tall lighted tapers and low arrangements of blooms were placed at either end. Mrs. Norbert May, sister of the bride, cut the cake, and presiding at the urn was Mrs. Conrad Spenner of Stayton. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Joseph Klein, Albany, the bride's sister-in-law, and Miss Patricia Blaisius; and Miss Agnes Schaffner, cousin of the bride, passed the guest book.

For her traveling ensemble, the bride donned a light blue linen dress suit, white hat and accessories and a pink corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Spenner left the same day on a three-weeks wedding trip to North and South Dakota, where they will visit with the bride's four brothers. Upon their return they will live on the bridegroom's farm at Stayton.

Men to Serve Breakfast to Honor Mothers

Mt. Angel — Mothers of the community will be guests at a Mother's Day breakfast next Sunday morning, May 17, to be served at 9 o'clock in the dining room of St. Mary's school, following the 8 o'clock mass in St. Mary's church.

Hosts for the breakfast are the four men's organizations of the city and parish. The Young Men's Sodality, with Don Jaeger as chairman, will do the decorating, have charge of the entertainment, and provide for the serving; the Mount Angel Business Men's club, with Al Dieker as chairman, will take care of the table setting; the Knights of Columbus, with Joseph Wagner as chairman, will be in charge of cooking the breakfast; and the cleanup and dish washing will be taken care of by the Catholic Order of Men Foresters, with Joseph Brockhaus as chairman.

Presidents of the four organizations will visit the shut-in mothers and present them with bouquets.

This is a change from the programs held in former years, when an evening entertainment was provided.

All mothers of the community are invited to attend the breakfast as guests of the four organizations.

AMONG THOSE VISITING with their families on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jacobsen who were in Corvallis with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max Fowler, and daughter, Judy.

Sprauer-Brinkman Rites At Mt. Angel Church

Mt. Angel — St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene of a wedding Saturday morning, May 9, when Miss Anna Mae Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brinkman, was wed to Pfc. Ronald J. Sprauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sprauer. The date was the 43rd wedding anniversary of the bride's maternal grandparents.

The Rev. Dominic Broxmeyer, OSB of Mount Angel Abby, performed the 10 o'clock double ring ceremony and officiated at the nuptial high mass. Gilbert Sprauer and Ronald Brinkman, brothers of the bride couple, served as altar boys. The St. Mary's choir sang, and Miss Helen Keber was organist. Miss Eustelle Bauman sang before the ceremony and again preceding the recessional.

Arrangements of white peonies, Calla lilies, white and pink snapdragons and white sprays with greenery, together with tall lighted tapers, decorated the church altars, with potted palm used in the sanctuary.

In White Tulle
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a delicate wedding dress of nylon tulle over taffeta. Nylon lace fashioned the off-the-shoulder bodice, styled with long tapered sleeves. A nylon tulle ruffle joined a yoke of illusion, and the full gathered skirt of nylon tulle over taffeta terminated in a court train. The lace edged fingertip veil of nylon tulle was held in place by a pearl crown, and the bride wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bride carried a white mother-of-pearl Prayer book, topped by an arrangement of pink rosebuds with streamers of ribbon. The Prayer book and rosary she carried were gifts from her godfather.

Miss Angela Sprauer, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid. She was attired in a pastel yellow taffeta, styled with fitted bodice and net yoke, and a full gathered floor length skirt. Her headpiece was of matching net and her flowers a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Eugene Brinkman was best man for his brother-in-law, and ushering the guests was Leonard Sprauer, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Brinkman chose a powder blue dress with pink and white accessories. Mrs. Sprauer was attired in a green dress and her accessories were pink. Both mothers wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

A breakfast was served in the dining room of the Mt. Angel hotel, immediately following the church ceremony. An arrangement of yellow and white blooms, flanked by lighted tapers, centered the table, where covers were placed for the Rev. Father Dominic, the bride party, and members of the two families.

Reception Given
During the afternoon, the bride's parents were host at a reception arranged at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sprauer. The rooms were decorated with arrangements of spring blooms. A white linen cloth covered the bride's table, centered with arrangements of spring blossoms, and tall lighted tapers and low arrangements of blooms were placed at either end. The three-tiered wedding cake was surrounded by a ring of pansies, tulips and greens.

Mrs. Fritz Bielenberg, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, and presiding at the urn was Mrs. John Kuschnick of Gervais, another sister. Mrs. Albert Sprauer, sister-in-law, and Miss Glorian Brinkman, the bride's sister, were at the gift table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Anna Sedakis and Mrs. Joseph Wessels.

The bride donned a light tan two tone suit with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage for her traveling attire. After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds will leave for San Antonio, Texas, where the bridegroom is stationed with the 4th Army.

WOODBURN — Exemplification of the ritual will be the program for the regular meeting of Chapter J. of the P.E.O. Sisterhood at the home of Mrs. Kenneth McGrath, Thursday, May 14, at 8 p.m.
