

DERBY BANQUET SET

Banquet Ahead for Boys In Soap Box Derby Race

By VIC FRYER

Hey, fellas, snap up your appetites. We're going to have a banquet.

That's right, a big banquet to honor the boys who race in the Mid-Willamette Valley Soap Box Derby on July 12. And it's free for the kids who race, that is. Every kid who is in the race that day gets a free ticket to the big banquet that evening where a special program will be put on and where the prizes will be presented to the winners. Parents, sponsors and friends will be invited to the banquet too, but they will have to furnish their own ticket.

This banquet is one of the big surprises that the Derby association has been working on for this year. For a while, we were afraid we wouldn't be able to do it until Sidney and Allan Stevens over at Stevens and Son Jewelers came to the rescue with an offer to pay for every Derbyist's banquet dinner.

Not only are they going to pay for the boys' dinner but they said they want to take

A meeting of representatives of groups who are going to help with concessions at the Derby has been set for Friday evening at the YMCA, Concessions Chairman Lloyd Evans has announced.

Five groups have volunteered workers for the Derby concessions so far, Evans said. Others who are interested in helping out in Salem's biggest boys' event, may contact him by phoning 2-8228 or by sending a representative to Friday's meeting.

Groups who have volunteered workers are the Rainbow Girls, De Molay, VFW Auxiliary, Sea Scouts, Optimists and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Charge of getting all the tickets ready and selling them to others who want to go to the banquet. Then they can see that parents and sponsors also get good seats to see the program and presentations.

The location of the banquet has not been definitely set but we'll let you know as soon as it is decided.

Incidentally watch for tomorrow's paper as we have an other surprise coming up for you.

Here are some more Derbyists who will be racing in Salem's biggest boys' event on the second Sunday in July.

Class A—Monte Langford, 4750 Fillmore, sponsored by Salem Glass Service; Bill Shattuc, 882 Sunset avenue, sponsored by Orcutt's Market; Juddie Baker, 4295 Claxter road, sponsored by Arrow Pickup service; Jim Fox, 320 Chemawa road, sponsored by the VFW Cooties; and Richard Hagner, 410 Ford street, sponsored by Vacuum Cleaner clinic.

Class B—Ernest O'Neill, 1540 Chemeketa street, sponsored by R. L. Elstrom company; Danny Shattuc, 882 Sun-

Student of Voice Offering Recital

Jeanette McMillan, special voice student at Willamette university, will make her debut recital at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the music recital hall. Her program will include a group of Russian and American folk songs. A student of Clorinda Topping, Mrs. McMillan, studied with the vocal educator for two years in Portland before Mrs. Topping was appointed to Willamette's staff in 1948. She has appeared as soloist before various organizations in Portland and Salem and has been featured on radio broadcasts.

Sidney Stevens of Stevens and Son Jewelers makes out a check to cover the expenses of all Derbyists to the big Derby banquet the evening of July 12, while looking on are Derby Director Bill Beyers; Allan Stevens, partner with his father in the store; and Vic Fryer of the Capital Journal, co-sponsors of the Derby with Douglas McKay Chevrolet Company. The store has volunteered to pay for the dinner for all boys who race in the Derby and will handle ticket sales for others interested in attending the banquet.

Stayton KCs Mothers Feted

Stayton—For the fifth consecutive year, the Knights of Columbus Council of the Santiam Valley entertained the mothers and wives of Knights of Columbus at a Mother's Day breakfast at the Stayton parish hall Sunday morning.

This year's registration for the breakfast was 214. Ed Jacoby, past district deputy and past grand knight of the local knights, acted as toastmaster, with the welcoming address given by Raymond Kerber, grand knight. Responses and speeches were given by A. L. Elvin, supreme council representative; Don Doerfler, district deputy; Mayor M. J. Martin of Stayton; Rose Bell, national director of the Catholic Daughters. The principal address for the breakfast was delivered by past district deputy, Jack Lynch of Oregon City.

The following mothers were honored and presented with engraved plaques; most recent mother, Mrs. LaVeta Christensen, of Sublimity; mother with the most children dedicated to the religious life, Mrs. Anna Weber of Stayton; youngest mother present, Mrs. Rosella Nielson, Sublimity. Gale Cartwright of Salem entertained with guitar selections.

Volunteer assistants were Mrs. Edward Coman, Mrs. Wayne Goff, recently from Juneau, Alaska, a guest of Mrs. Coman, Mrs. Jack Connell and Mrs. Charles Smith. A nurses' conference will be held June 9 when immunizations will be given at the Woodburn library which will close the season for the local clinic. However, the clinic in Salem will be kept open all summer at the main office and will be available to all residents of the county.

Woodburn Clinic Held for Children

Woodburn — Twenty-five children were examined at the well child health clinic, held Tuesday at the Woodburn library. Dr. W. J. Stone was the physician in charge, assisted by Mrs. Mary Yesterman and Mrs. Harmon Yearly, county nurses.

TIME TO SWITCH? THIS 60-SECOND WHISKEY TEST GIVES THE ANSWER!

ANYTIME IS A GOOD TIME to switch to better tasting whiskey. That's why we suggest you compare Calvert with your usual brand and pick the one you really like better.

1. SNIFF 1/4-oz. samples of Calvert and any other whiskey. Compare their aroma—without knowing which is which.

2. TASTE Calvert and the other brand to judge them for smoothness, mellowness — freedom from harshness.

3. CHOOSE the whiskey that tastes better to you. We feel sure that you'll pick finer, smoother-tasting Calvert. But you be the judge. Fair enough?
