

EXPLORER

Jon Lindbergh, 20, (above), is shown in this exclusive Oakland Tribune picture, wearing a navy "frogman" suit as he prepared for his first dive in the depths of Bower Cave, Mariposa County, Calif. This was the first time the underwater reaches of the cave had been explored. Suicide Blast Wrecks Cabin

Grants Pass (AP) — An early morning blast ripped apart an auto court cabin here Wednesday and caused critical injuries to the lone occupant, Sylvester C. Brooks, 23, Visalia, Calif.

Police Chief Carl Dallas said he found a note which hinted at suicide.

Brooks registered Saturday with a woman and small girl, who appeared to be about 5 years old, as Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brooks.

Dallas said the woman and child left some time after Tuesday afternoon when they were seen at the cabin. He said he had issued a police bulletin asking that she be held for questioning.

The note, found in the cabin debris, was quoted by Dallas as saying, "I am getting out of your way . . . Be good to Casey."

The cabin was equipped with propane gas. Police said that pending a fuller check they would assume it had been turned on and a match set off the blast.

Hospital attendants said it was unlikely that Brooks would live out the day.

Electrical Energy Increases in N.W.

New York (AP)—Electric energy distributed by the utility industry in the United States last week declined to 7,896,339,000 kilowatt hours from 7,938,823,000 in the preceding week, Edison Electric Institute reported Wednesday. It was the lowest volume since the week ended Jan. 3, 1953.

Nevertheless, last week's total was 12.2 per cent above the 7,039,438,000 kilowatt hours produced in the same week in 1952. All sections of the country produced more electrical energy last week than a year ago.
