

"UNION MADE" BIRD NEST

This bluejay sits on eggs in her nest bearing "union made" label in a tree on the grounds of the Evangelical Children's Home in St. Louis. Victor B. Hauck, superintendent of the home, said the labeled scrap of paper used in the nest construction is believed to have come from waste paper after a wallpapering project nearby. (AP Wirephoto.)

Urges Funds for N.W. Projects

Washington (AP)—Rep. Magnuson (D-Wash.) urged appropriations for five Pacific Northwest power projects Wednesday, including 2 1/2 million dollars to start work on Ice Harbor lock and dam.

Citing what he termed the Northwest's "acute and growing need for hydroelectric power," Magnuson asked a House appropriations subcommittee to recommend these amounts for the year starting July 1:

Chief Joseph Dam, 25 million; McNary lock and dam, $27,700,000; The Dalles lock and dam, $37,429,000, all on the Columbia River; and Albeni Falls dam on Pend Oreille River, $7,200,000.

All the figures correspond to the Eisenhower budget with the exception of Ice Harbor for which the present administration recommended nothing.

Rep. Coon (R-Ore.) also urged the subcommittee to support the request for funds for The Dalles project.

Last Rites for Col. Stallings

Portland (AP)—Funeral services were held here Wednesday for Col. A. R. Stallings, 85, who for 16 years was president of the U. S. Spruce Production Corp. He died Monday after a year's illness.

He was born in West Virginia and was commissioned in the judge advocate general's department in 1918.

In 1930 he became head of the government spruce corporation which was to dispose of assets acquired during World War I for spruce used in airplane construction.

The corporation was liquid-

JAPAN BANS IRANIAN OIL

Tokyo (AP)—Japan told Britain Wednesday, in effect, that it will halt future purchases of Iranian oil by Japanese companies, Kyodo News Service reported. The 18,000-ton tanker, Nissho Maru, last week arrived with a load of Iranian oil.
