Dances on Week-end Calendar

By BARBARA JACKSON
(Capital Journal Correspondent)
Spring dances will highlight the week-end on the Willamette campus as the school year nears a close.

Alpha Chi Omega will present its spring formal in the chapter house from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock Friday night. The theme of the affair is "Cotton Ball," and a southern plantation scene will be featured in the decorations. Judy Finch of Portland has arranged the event.

The set or members of Chi Omega will be honored at the annual white carnation ball, entitled "Grecian Garden," to be held at the American Legion hall in West Salem tomorrow night from 9 to 12 o'clock. The decorations, planned by chairman of the dance, Sue Lovely of Portland, will follow the Grecian theme.

Phi Delta Theta will stage its spring formal at the Knights of Columbus hall Saturday night from 9 to 12 o'clock. The following day the fraternity will travel to the beach for the day. Beach trips will be held on Sunday by Sigma Chi and Beta Theta Pi, also.

Pat Harris of Portland announced the news of her engagement to Bob Goff of Corvallis Monday evening during dinner at the Pi Beta Phi house. Miss Harris is a sophomore and will work next year in Portland. Goff, a junior, is a member of Sigma Chi. The couple has set no date for the wedding.

News of the engagement of Frances Smith of Portland to Tom Scheidel of Salem came as a surprise to members of Alpha Chi Omega Monday evening. Miss Smith is a sophomore majoring in English, and Scheidel, a member of Sigma Chi, is a speech major.

UNESCO will present the foreign movie, "The Bicycle Thief," next Thursday and Friday nights in Waller hall, and admission price will be 50c. The film has been acclaimed as the greatest foreign film in the last 40 years.

Olinger park will be the scene of an all-women student

Honors Won By Salem Students

By ALICE LEHMAN
(Capital Journal Correspondent)
Oregon State College, Corvallis (Special)—Many Salem people have recently been tapped for honoraries here on the Oregon State college campus. Joan Stettler was tapped for Telons, sophomore women's service honorary. Pat Morton will become a new member of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary. Alice Lehman was tapped for Orchestria, national modern dance honorary, and Celia Weaver was tapped for Euterpe, women's music honorary.

At the AWS honor convocation certificates were presented to Alpha Lambda Delta seniors who had maintained a 3.5 GPA for their four years in college. Included on the list were: Alvis Miller, Lorraine Welling and Diane Perry, all of Salem.

This past week-end at the honors and awards convocation, held as a part of Mothers Week-end, came the announcement of Joan Stettler as one of the winners of women's scholarships. Another Salem girl, Doris Frohm, was announced as being the alternate for this award.

to the 16 leaders present. Meetings will be resumed in September.

Mrs. Edward Majek of Salem was elected to the post of district representative for the Oregon State Mothers club at their last meeting.

Plans are being made far in advance for next year's incoming freshmen. Rook and Rookess counselors are chosen each year to help orient freshmen when they first come to college. Rookess counselors from Salem are Celia Weaver, Jody Ricketts, Evi Tarem, Pat Healy, and Kaija Lsetuvistia. Rook counselors are Wally Reeves, Jack Beakey and Bob Walker.

Recently elected to offices on the campus were Alan Olson and Stan Lyman. Alan was elected president of the food technology club and Stan has received the post of vice president of main dorm.

Mid-term exams are coming to an end and with only four more weeks of classes left before final week and summer vacations, students are beginning to plan their summer activities. Those planning to attend the University of Hawaii are Jan Folger, Pat Healy, and Eunice Peckenpagh.

A big week-end is in store for students as they look forward to two main events. The first takes place Friday afternoon and evening at Avery Park and is known as the sophomore picnic. From now on these students will be considered as social juniors, and the fellas may now shave off the three weeks growth of beard that they have been growing for the affair. The second event for the week-end is the Senior Ball to be Saturday night.
