 - Fresh Pineapple Beverage
- Springtime Green Pea Soup
- Ingredients: 1 package frozen green peas, 4 scallions, 1 chicken bouillon cube, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup light cream, salt and pepper.
- Method: Put peas in a saucepan. Wash and clean scallions leaving most of green tops on; dice fine, including tops; add to peas. Use the amount of boiling water suggested on package and cook peas and scallions together until very tender. Drain; add enough hot water to the pea liquid to make 1 cup; dissolve bouillon cube in this. Force peas through a fine sieve to puree. Melt butter in a saucepan; blend in flour. Add bouillon and cream all at one time. Cook and stir constantly over low heat until slightly thickened. Add pea puree. Stir and reheat, but do not boil, adding salt to taste. If soup is not entirely smooth strain through cheesecloth-lined strainer before reheating. Makes 3 servings.

Miss Etzel Recent Bride

A bride at St. Joseph's Catholic church on Saturday, May 9, was Miss Doris Marie Etzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Etzel of Dallas. She was wed to Charles Thornton Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Coffey of Salem, at a 10 o'clock double ring ceremony, the Rev. Joseph E. Vanderbeck officiating. Altar boys were Thornton Coffey, cousin of the bridegroom, and John Hamstreet. Corin Alexander and Wayne Meusey provided the music for the service. Calla lilies, pink carnations and yellow tulips decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of Chantilly lace with nylon tulle and satin. It was fashioned with lace tiers at the sides of the skirt and a bodice styled with scalloped neckline and lace sleeves. A pearl trimmed satin cap secured the bride's fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of gardenias surrounding an orchid.

Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Marietta Etzel and bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Coffey, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Richard Gray, sister of the bride, Miss JoAnn Rohde and Miss Celia Wolf. Cynthia Gray was the flower girl. Their dresses were of pastel taffeta under white net, ballerina length, and they wore matching headbands. All the attendants carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies.

Herbert Bauer was the best man and ushering the guests were Melvin Staudinger,

George Schmidt, Paul Muller and Richard Gray.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Etzel wore a two-piece slate blue dress of silk shantung with pink and navy accessories. Mrs. Coffey, the bridegroom's mother, wore a blue silk dress with white and blue accessories. Their flowers were pink carnations and rosebuds.

At the reception in the Woman's club house, Mrs. Mary June Wofford, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. John Hafner, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. John C. Benish. Assisting were Mrs. Barney Covey, Miss Lou Ceil Jenkins, Mrs. Herbert Bauer, Mrs. Melvin Staudinger and Mrs. Henry Gambit.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will be at home at 677 North Summer following a short wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Coffey wore a powder blue dressmaker suit with pink and navy accessories. The bride attended schools in Perrydale and is now a secretary at the Oregon Pulp and Paper company. Mr. Coffey attended Sacred Heart academy and has recently returned home following four years with the U.S. air force.
