

WU's A Cappella Choir to Sing Sunday

Willamette university a cappella choir will appear in concert next Sunday, May 17, at 8 p.m. in the First Christian church. The concert is being sponsored by the Salem Music Teachers association, Mrs. Jack Morrison, president.

The choir has experienced one of its most successful years since it was organized by Dean Melvin H. Geist in the fall of 1939. During the spring tour, from April 3 to 14, the group sang in Yakima, Wenatchee, Seattle, Bellingham, Mt. Vernon, Chehalis and Everett, Wash.; Vancouver, B.C., and in Portland and Oregon City, Ore.

Salem students singing in the choir are: Coralle Doughton, Audrey Roblin, Betty Walser, Ronald Bartlett, Paul Baker, Gaylord Hall, Lewis Hampton, Elling Halvorsen and Lawrence Monk. Those from Salem playing in the orchestra are: Phil Ringle, Caroline Matter, Roberta Graham and Sally Bolliger.

This year's concert features as its first group, the Bach cantata No. 4, with chamber orchestra. This work is considered by critics as one of the most remarkable creations to come from this master's pen. The second and third group, sung by the choir, will include one of Kodaly's finest works "Jesus and the Traders"; the "Brazilian Psalm" by Berger; "Benedictus" by Paladilhe; Negro spirituals and folk songs from various countries.

Faculty members assisting in providing the accompaniment for the Bach cantata are: Dr. Willis Gates, violin; Ethel Lou Stanek, cello; and Josef Schnelker, organ. Dean Melvin H. Geist will direct the performance. The public is invited.

Officers of the a cappella choir for the year have been: Robert Anderson, president; Eshella Schuerman, vice-president; Carol Emerson, secretary; Ann Shidell, treasurer; Norman Lawson, business manager; Paul Baker, assistant business manager and publicity director. At a recent meeting the following officers were elected to serve for next year: Lewis Hampton, president; Carol Emerson, vice-president; Coralle Doughton, secretary; Dan Dearborn, treasurer; William Briggs, business manager, Elling Halvorsen, publicity director.

VISITORS arriving Thursday at the L. L. Ferguson home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Harter of West Los Angeles who will be here about a week. Mr. Harter is an uncle of Mrs. Ferguson.

Club Elects
Mrs. Paul Silke was chosen president of the Grant school Mothers club on Thursday. Other officers are Mrs. Max Wyatt, vice president; Mrs. Jack Peavy, secretary and Mrs. Dale Jory, treasurer. The retiring president is Mrs. Lauren Gale.

UO NOTES Salemmites Take Part In Programs

By ANN CARSON

(Capital Journal Correspondent)
University of Oregon, Eugene (Special) — Junior Week-end has been proclaimed a wonderful success at the University of Oregon. By Sunday, even the weather had cleared up. Friday night was the prom. The Student Union was as full as it possibly could have been. It was there that the queen, Joan Walker, was crowned. Joan Marie Miller of Salem was in the queen's court. An outstanding honor that Joan Marie received was the Gerlinger cup for outstanding junior woman of the year. Along with being co-chairman of the whole program, Miss Miller had a very busy week-end. Druids, junior men's honorary tapped that night also.

The all-campus luncheon was at McArthur Court because of the weather, but there was fun in spite of the dampness. Tapping at this event was Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, who selected Joan Marie Miller as a member.

The float parade was the next outstanding event of the week-end. The float that received first place was a beautiful piece of workmanship. It was called Dreamer's Holiday, and it was really a dream to look at it. It had huge illusion tulips and butterflies with children riding on them. The float that took second
