

Robin Roberts Can Pitch 470 Innings at This Rate

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York (AP) — The skeptics who don't believe Robin Roberts can pitch the 330 innings proscribed for him by Steve O'Neill this year, might take note of the fact today that he could pitch close to 470 at his present pace.

The Philly Fireball last night turned in his eighth complete game and gained his sixth triumph with a five-hit, 6-3 victory over the Reds in which he struck out seven batters. In addition to his eight games, he also went five innings in a rained-out game to give him a total of 77 innings pitched so far in 25 games played by the Phils.

Thus, with the season less than a sixth complete, the ex-Michigan State bonus boy could easily go well over 400 innings.

Mauling Milwaukee
The Dodgers knocked Milwaukee out of a first place tie with the Phils by defeating them 4-1 on a pair of two-run homers by George Shuba and Duke Snider as Russ Meyer pitched a seven-hitter and gained his third victory.

The resurgent Giants put over three 10th inning runs to defeat the Cubs 6-4 at Chicago as Al Corwin pitched two-hit relief ball for three innings to gain his third victory. It was the fourth victory in the last five games for the Giants.

Here's What You Missed on TV

Millions of who watched the 145-second Walcott-Marceliano heavy-weight title fight in Chicago May 15, missed the right crowd that brought the bout to its surprisingly quick end. What the TV camera missed, the Three-D movie camera caught. Marceliano starts the right (1), connects (2), drives forward (3) and follows through (4) and Walcott is canvas bound for count of 10.
