Pleasantdale

Pleasantdale — Allan Webster, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Webster, returned home early this week after being hospitalized. Saturday, May 16, when he jumped on a moving tractor at his home, slipped and fell under the wheel, which ran over both thighs, but did not break any bones. X-rays were taken and he was treated for torn ligaments and muscles.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schutz, were Mrs. Bertha Wade, daughter Verma and son Darryl of Dallas, and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lauser.

Mrs. Vern Booth and children, Ronnie and Carolyn of Willamina, were Sunday dinner guests of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Reichstein.

Mrs. Bus Hadley of Margaret's Flower shop, went to the high school in Dayton recently and talked to the freshman Home Ec girls about making flower arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Edwards of Pleasantdale and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright of Newburg drove to Tillamook on Sunday, then to North Plains where Mrs. Wright's sister and husband joined them for a trip to the Graham fuchsia gardens on Sauvie's Island. Mrs. Edwards reported a very pleasant day.

Kenny Hadley and three friends, all of McMinnville, spent Sunday afternoon here with his cousin, Louis Hadley.

Butteville

Butteville — Visiting day for the small fry who will enter school next fall was held Friday in the lower room.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sonnen, the present teacher, will be the teacher next term, too. A class of 11 will be entering. But Gary Jones had the measles and missed visiting day.

The 10 little visitors were Kenneth Hecche, Noel Martin, Jonathan Pahl, Larry Tautel, Burtie Tautel, Beatie Missett, Maureen Yost, Margaret Shober, Karen Shulte, Carole Higginbotham.

In the afternoon some of the mothers visited school, Mrs. Ed Miller acting as hostess and serving tea to Mesdames Richard Shober, Elmer Shulte, Pahl, Missett, Charles Martin, Louis Racette.

New officers for the coming year were elected at the last meeting of the Butteville P.T.A. They are Mrs. Les Hostetler, president; Miss Hartwell White, vice-president; and Mrs. Ernest Crook, secretary-treasurer.

The lower room won the attendance getting contest to the upper room will have to give a party at some future date not yet decided. The last day of school community picnic will be May 24 at the school house. Every one is invited to come with a pot-luck dish of food and their own plate and silver. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished.

The musical program for the meeting was given by the boys' chorus from McLara school. Eighteen boys of high school grade participated. Violin and cornet solos by talented boys interspersed the vocal numbers.

The Gio-Candie demonstration class was held in the Women's Civic club building Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bruce (Lucy) Strachan, from the Pacific Co-op in Portland, gave the demonstration assisted by members of the local co-op. A colored travel film was shown.

Butteville women attending were Mrs. Dan Clark, Mrs. W. O. Lindquist, Mrs. John Hamussen, Mrs. Walter Aldridge, Mrs. Jack McClure, Mrs. Beryl Breithaupt, Mrs. A. A. Price and her daughter, Mrs. J. B. O'Farrell.

Lyons

Lyons — The members of the Santiam Chapel met with Rev. Atwood Forester, district superintendent of the Assembly of God churches, and Rev. Paul Durr, sectional preacher and voted to cooperate with the Assemblies of God. They also voted to change the name of the church from Santiam Chapel, to the Santiam Assembly of God.

Rev. Luster Young resigned as pastor and the Rev. L. E. Gould will be the succeeding pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McWhirk and family have moved into the Fred Lindemann house across the street from the Variety store. The McWhirks moved from the Schwindt farm in Jordan.

E. L. Royce returned Sunday evening from Elgin, Ore. where he spent the week end at the home of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Royce. Mrs. Clara Corbin of Mill City stayed with Mrs. Royce while he was away.
