

FAREWELL CRUISE

President and Mrs. Eisenhower leave the yacht Williamsburg at Alexandria, Va., following a four-day "farewell" cruise which took them to Yorktown and Norfolk, Va., and the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. The President has ordered the ship into mothballs because he feels it is a symbol of "needless luxury." (UP Telephoto.)

Mill City

Mill City—The American Legion is sponsoring a Junior Legion Baseball League this summer. The announcement was made this week by John Muir, commander of Mill City post No. 159.

Jim Hale and Jim Poole will co-manage the team. Boys through 17 are urged to come out for practice.

Among those attending the 40 at 8 meeting in Salem recently were John Muir and David Kelly of Mill City and Bob Oliver of Gates. They were initiated in the 40 at 8, which is a service organization of the American Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Mason have purchased the Clayton Ballmore home. Mr. Mason is power operator superintendent at the Detroit dam, moving here recently from Bounseville.

Miss Donna Ellington has been selected to represent Mill City schools at Girls State, the week of June 8, at Willamette University.

Girls chosen for this honor must be outstanding in citizenship and personality. Miss Ellington is a junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson and three children of Pacific Grove, Calif., visited friends and relatives here this week.

They were house guests of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith.

The Johnsons are former residents of this city. His new operates a mill at Pacific Grove.

George Vetele, active member of the Santiam Chamber of Commerce, has been named chairman of the soft drink concession to be operated at the official opening of the Detroit dam, June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cline are spending several days at Waldport. Their beach property was damaged by winter storms and extensive repairs are necessary.

Peggy Thomas, young daughter of the Herbert Thomas, is home after several weeks in a Portland hospital. She is recuperating fast and expects to be back in school next week.

There are 18 seniors in the graduating class of Mill City high school.

Commencement exercises will be held at the grade school gym May 29 at 8 p.m. Baccalaureate services will be at the same place May 24, at 8 p.m.

Donna Jean Nelson is class valedictorian and Betty Lou Cree was named salutatorian.

Garden club will hold its spring flower show May 29 at the Presbyterian recreation hall.

Mrs. Robert Wings, R.N., announced that 27 children attended the well-baby clinic held last week at the grade school.

Aurora

Aurora — The Aurora Junior rodeo was set for Sunday, August 16, at a meeting of directors of the Aurora Lions club.

The Lion leaders, sponsors of the show which had an auspicious beginning last year, also decided that a rodeo queen will be selected this year, the choice to be determined by advance sale of tickets.

Officers of the Aurora Lions club were elected at a May 14 meeting and the following names were placed in nomination for president, Lou Gineau and Julius Sather; for vice president, Merritt Wirth and P. H. Peterson; second vice president, William Fobert and Hal Byers; secretary-treasurer, Elmer Jolley, F. M. Ferguson and Charles Smith; hall trustee, F. H. Peterson, Elton Piny, Lou Gineau and Julius Sather; lion tamer, Fred Saxton, Merritt Wirth and Lou Gineau; directors, Pat Neal, Gene Cole, Bert Jolley and Walter Erland.
