

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Seniors Spotlighthed in News as Year Concludes

By BARBARA JACKSON (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Yearly awards will be presented at convocation Tuesday as the school year at Willamette draws to a close. Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary, and Beta Alpha Gamma, sophomore women's honorary, will tap new members. Cardinal Key and Sigma Alpha Chi will also announce new members at the assembly, and scholarships will be awarded by President G. Herbert Smith.

Jim Hitchman of Balboa Island, Calif., was named president of the student body in elections last week. Ken Cooper of Seattle, Wash. will serve as member at large, and George Evans of Portland was chosen first vice-president. The second vice-presidency will be held by Gay Weeks of Salem, and Carolyn Crane of Portland was chosen student body secretary. Dona Cheney of San Mateo, Calif. will handle finances next year.

Publications will be supervised by Cal Horn of The Dalles, who was chosen publications manager. Sally Bridgeman of Portland was chosen to edit the Willamette yearbook, and Stan Nelson of Tillamook will be editor of the campus paper, the Collegian, next year.

Graduation time is approaching for the seniors, and they were honored at convocation today. Sunday Baccalaureate services will be at 3 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church. The address will be delivered by Professor Emeritus W. W. Herman Clark, and the Willamette a cappella choir will sing at the services. Graduation activities will culminate in commencement exercise, May 31, in McCulloch stadium, weather permitting. In case of rain, the services will take place in the gymnasium. Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay is to be the speaker.

The University band will present a concert Sunday at 8:15 p.m. in the gymnasium, and highlighting the event will be Schumann's Concerto in A Minor. Jane Gray of Portland will be the pianist for the selection. The band will be directed by Maurice W. Brennan, and

At Golf Club The spring tournament for the Oak Knoll Ladies Golf club was started Wednesday, 18 holes being played yesterday, 18 more to be played next week.

Engagement Told Independence—An engagement of much local interest is that of Miss Shirley Ann Pippin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pippin, to Richard Dodele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dodele of South Independence. The couple are planning a late summer wedding.

Today's Menu

Company for Supper Country Captain, Skillet Style Steamed Rice Salad Bowl Melba Toast Strawberry and Pineapple Shortcake Beverage

Country Captain, Skillet Style Ingredients: One 3-pound (dressed weight) chicken, 3 tablespoons olive oil, 1/4 cup finely diced onion, 1/4 cup finely diced green pepper, 1 clove garlic, 1 1/4 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 teaspoons curry powder, 1/2 teaspoon dried crushed thyme, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 No. 2 can solid pack tomatoes, 1 cup water, toasted diced blanched almonds, currents (rinsed in hot water and drained).

Method: Have chicken cut into 10 serving-size pieces; wash and dry. Heat oil in 12-inch skillet; add chicken and brown. Remove chicken; add onion and green pepper; cook slowly a few minutes. Mince garlic and add to skillet with salt, pepper, curry powder, thyme and flower; mix well. Add tomatoes (including liquid from can) and water; cook and stir a few minutes. Return chicken to sauce; cover; cook over low heat, stirring sauce occasionally, until chicken is tender—30 to 45 minutes. Serve over cooked rice accompanied by almonds and currents. Makes 4 servings.

FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT A KERATOLYTIC IS A MUST.

What is a keratolytic? An agent that softens the hardened skin. It then peels off, exposing more germs to its killing action. Get Y-4-L, a keratolytic, at any drug store. It not needed IN ONE HOUR, your feet look better today at Perry's Drug Store.

Salem people have been invited to attend.

More music will be presented for the public tomorrow night in Waller hall when the Willamette chamber orchestra will play. Directed by Dr. Willis Gates, the orchestra will present selections of Porter, Hindemith, and Mozart. The concert begins at 8 p.m.

Scholarships have been granted to outstanding high school seniors enrolling in Willamette next fall this week. Among the recipients of the awards is Robert E. Joseph of Salem, who will receive the Berg scholarship. This scholarship is granted annually to the outstanding high school graduate currently in the employ of Berg's market. Honor scholarships have been awarded to Ronald Largent, Patricia Shields, Gloria Stolk, Gloria Wood, and Enzette Kinzer of Salem.

Ursula Glaeser announced her engagement to Dr. Robert Purbrick this week. Miss Glaeser, who is from Linz, Austria, has been attending Willamette and has also been chaperon at Bishop manor. Dr. Purbrick is the associate professor of physics on the faculty.

Delta Gammas will dance Friday in a nautical atmosphere, at their spring house dance held, 9 to 12 p.m., in the chapter house. Decorations will be featured around the S. S. Delta Gamma, and rooms will be arranged to represent islands, staterooms, and the captain's quarters. Pat Sundstrom of Montessano, Wash. is in charge of the dance.

An old fashioned barn dance will be sponsored by Sigma Chi tomorrow night. Beginning with a hayride for the group, the dance will feature decorations and refreshments in keeping with the theme.

Miss Monroe Tells Troth At College

From Stockton, Calif., comes news of interest to many friends in Salem, announcement of the engagement of Miss Harriet E. Monroe, dean of women at College of the Pacific, to Clarence W. Peterson of Tracy, Calif.

Miss Monroe, formerly of Parkdale, Ore., and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Monroe of Parkdale, was graduated from Willamette university. She took graduate work at Syracuse university and in 1948 took her position at College of the Pacific and at that time was the youngest dean of women in the United States.

Mr. Peterson, a prominent Tracy businessman, is an alumnus of Ames university in Iowa. His mother is Mrs. L. C. Peterson of San Francisco.

The announcement of the engagement was made at the Associated Women Students' banquet at COP and during the dinner Mr. Peterson placed a trans-Atlantic telephone call from London, England, to Miss Monroe. He is en route to Paris for the international convention of Rotary.

The wedding is planned for late in June.

Welcome Wagon Club Luncheon

Welcome Wagon club met for luncheon Wednesday at the Senator hotel with Mrs. Walter Crane presiding.

Mrs. A. Kenneth Smith, project chairman, explained the club's project work for Fairview Home to new members and guests. To date 1600 gifts have been made by club members and one has been presented to each of the patients at Fairview. Plans are now being made to remember the patients through the summer months.

Mrs. Floyd Baker, chairman of the table arrangement committee, announced that Welcome Wagon club had been awarded second prize for its table "Silver Symphony" in the FWCA table-setting contest.

Plans were made for a family picnic to be in Bush's pasture Sunday, June 21. Members are asked to bring their own picnic lunch and table service.

The meeting closed with a hobby display by Mrs. J. F. Romains, Mrs. William Wessner, Mrs. H. E. Murray, Mrs. H. Gottfried, Mrs. George Wernick, and Mrs. Robert L. Williams.
