St. Mary's School Presents Many Achievement Awards

Mt. Angel—Presentation of awards in various activities were given to students of St. Mary's grade school at the second annual class night, Friday evening, in the St. Mary's school auditorium. An award given to a student who contributed most to the success of the first school carnival was given to Jeanette Wolf, an eighth grade graduate. Mary Ann Bielemeier made the presentation to Jeanette, who was manager of the carnival held to raise funds to purchase suits for the basketball team.

Mrs. Ray Ruscher, chairman of the American Legion auxiliary American essay contest, announced the winners and sent cash awards to first prize winner Donna Vols; second prize, Mary Ann Bielemeier, and third prize to Diane Skirvan. Poppy poster winners were announced and received cash awards from Mrs. Clarence Eber, Chairman of the auxiliary contest. Receiving awards were, Division I, 4th, 8th and 6th grades. Virginia Sannes, first; Leonard Butsch, second, and Florence Buchholz, third prize. Division II, 7th and 8th grades: Jeanette Wolf, first; Nancy Ebbe, second, and Grace Buchholz, third prize. Honorable mentions were given to Betty Ann Fronk, Mary Ann Fitzsimmons, James Predeek, to their late former teacher, Miss Pauline Saalfeld, who died last January after more than 20 years of teaching in the local school.
