

Mrs. Galey Boosted For Office

Sweet Home—Mrs. John Galey has been nominated by the Oregon State Federation of Business and Professional Women to be considered by the national nominating committee for the office of first vice president of the national BPW organization. This action was taken at the state convention at Grants Pass recently.

Experienced in BPW activities, Mrs. Galey is a past president of the state organization and has headed national committees as well.

Mrs. John Galey

In August the western state regions of the BPW will meet in Salt Lake City. The Oregon State Federation will sponsor a luncheon when the theme, "Oregon Products and Industries" is featured. The Sweet Home BPW club has volunteered to be in charge of decorations for this affair, using Oregon products as favors and centerpieces. Mrs. Galey will be the speaker at this luncheon and at other events during the convention.

Miss Elder Bride At Lebanon Rites

Lebanon—Baskets of white gladioli, pink snapdragons and lighted tapers provided the setting for the wedding of Dorothy Elberta Elder and John Leroy Abraham on the evening of May 18 at the Presbyterian church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey Schmidt. Mrs. Lawrence Page played the nuptial music and accompanied Lloyd Powell of Albany who was soloist.

Given by her father in marriage, the bride wore a white satin dress with informal length train and an illusion veil which was held in place by a small lace bonnet edged in seed pearls. Her flowers were stephanotis and red rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Shirley Forquer, maid of honor, wore a lavender tulle frock, and the other attendants, Mrs. Carole Steckley and Mrs. Leta Ackerman, wore similarly styled dresses of green. All carried sweet peas and gardenias.

Best man was the bride's brother, Ray Elder. Ushering were Merle Abraham, Harry Trompou and Tom Elder.

At the reception in the church parlors baskets of lilies and spiraea were arranged on the refreshments table.

For traveling Mrs. Abraham wore an aqua knitted suit with white topcoat and black accessories. After their Canadian honeymoon the couple will live in Lebanon.

The bride attended Albany high school and her husband attended Shedd high school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Elder of Lebanon. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Abraham of Shedd.

Pythian Sisters

Silverton—Pythian Sisters met last week and completed plans for the food sale Friday, May 29, at the Sprouts-Reltz store, beginning at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

For the Thursday evening, June 4, meeting Mrs. Carl Specht is to serve as program chairman. The refreshment committee will include Mrs. Henry Anundson, Mrs. Olaf Anderson, Mrs. Sadie Barkhurst and Mrs. Leola Benson.

At the close of last week's session Ernest R. Ekman showed sound-color movies taken during a recent tour of Pacific Islands including the Hawaiian groups. A successful sale of basket suppers featured the social hour.

Plan for Booth

Liberty—Mrs. William Hall entertained a group of ladies of the Liberty Mothers club recently to make final plans for a popcorn booth at the carnival to be at Joryville park, May 29-31.

Present were Mrs. Harry Werry, Mrs. Robert Fries, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Vern Sorenson, Mrs. Ivan Royce, Mrs. James Falk, Mrs. George Morrison, Mrs. Sid Boise, Mrs. Wally Murdock, Mrs. Louis Kurth and Mrs. Hall, chairman for the Liberty Mothers club.

Wed in April—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hill (Greta Ann Schreengost) were married in early April. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Schreengost and Mr. Hill is the son of Tom Hill and Mrs. Pearl Hill. (Kennell-Ellis studio picture)

Miss Campbell Is Married in Portland

Independence—Miss Hollis Joy Campbell of Portland, and Merlin H. Elkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elkins of Monmouth, were wed Sunday, May 17, at the Woodland Park chapel in Portland. The chapel was decorated with pink rhododendrons, snapdragons and snowballs. The Rev. Delmar Ramsdell, pastor of the Fratland church in Salem, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Ronald McCarthy and Ralph Huntley lighted the tapers. Preceding the ceremony the Rev. Mr. Cook of Portland sang, Mrs. Arnold Motz playing the marches and accompanying the soloist.

The bride, wearing a white satin dress with fingertip veil, was given in marriage by her father. Her bouquet was of pink roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ralph Huntley, of Sheridan was matron of honor and wore a dress of lavender satin. Mrs. Rosalie McClintock and Miss Connie Phaber of Portland were bridesmaids, and wore identical pink and yellow satin gowns. The flower girl was Luann Munson of Portland. Each attendant to the bride carried ribbon baskets and sweet peas.

John Peterson of Independence attended the bridegroom as best man.

Ushers were Pat Campbell, brother of the bride, and Ronald McCarty, cousin of the bridegroom, both of Portland; John Schroeder of Monmouth and Ralph Huntley of Sheridan.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony there was a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Will Anderson cut the wedding cake. Miss Diane Horn of Florence presided at the coffee urn, and Miss Audrey Dodson of Harlan served punch. Mrs. Lella Stewart of Milwaukie and Miss Janice Burger of Portland assisted with serving. Miss Marjorie Elkins was in charge of the guest book.

The bride chose as her traveling ensemble a pink suit with white accessories. The couple left for a honeymoon in California. They will make their home south of Monmouth.
