Middle Grove — A combined open house and Mother's club meeting was held at the school house for the last meeting of the school year for the club.

The program was presented by the first, second, third and fourth grades.

At the Mother's club special meeting the retiring president, Mrs. Gil Blankenship, was presented a gift.

Plans were made to assist with a covered dish supper at 6 p. m. May 29 at the school. This will be in place of a picnic and for all school children, their parents and friends. For the mothers social hour Mrs. LeRoy Austin was hostess.

For the pre-school orientation day there were 14 mothers present with their children, but about 26 first graders are expected for the new term.

Arthur Myers, supervising principal, the school nurse, Miss Poujade and Wallace Turnidge, principal, spoke to the mothers. Both mothers and children were guests of the Mothers club at the cafeteria for lunch.

At last week's meeting of Associated club the report of legal advice was given as to the wording of the constitution for legal terms, and a special meeting was planned to prepare for the first reading to club members.
