P.E.O. Organizes 6th Chapter Here; Mrs. Perry President of New Group

About 150 attended the meeting and tea Monday afternoon when Chapter CQ of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, sixth chapter of the group in Salem, was organized. The meeting was at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Dolph Phipps of Medford, state organizer, conducted the meeting. The new chapter is made up of members from other chapters who have moved to Salem.

Members of Chapter BQ, sponsoring organization of the new group, assisted at the initial event, Mrs. Ervin L. Peterson being president of Chapter BQ.

Officers for the new chapter, CQ, are Mrs. William C. Perry, formerly of Chapter CM, Pendleton, president; Mrs. K. D. Lytle, Chapter BI, Roseburg, vice-president; Mrs. W. B. Gill, Chapter J, Woodburn, recording secretary; Mrs. William J. Bender, Chapter AC, Ashland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clyde Martin, Chapter O, Albany, treasurer; Mrs. G. W. Bruce, Chapter BA, Gresham, chaplain; Mrs. T. Kvale, Chapter BI, Willmar, Minn., guard.

Other charter members are Mrs. K. H. Cole, Chapter AL, Edgemont, S.D.; Miss Winifred Carrithers, Chapter FK, Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mrs. A. F. de Lespinasse, Chapter AQ, Redmond; Mrs. Homer Heaton, Chapter AF, Oxford, Neb.; Mrs. Arthur Lara, Chapter CE, Newport; Mrs. C. M. Forbes, Chapter M, Kellogg, Idaho; Mrs. John Muir, Chapter AR, Ritzville, Wash.; Mrs.

D. V. Olds, Chapter BO, St. Helens; Mrs. Don Richardson, Chapter B, Shelton, Wash.

Other state officers at the meeting, in addition to Mrs. Phelps, included Mrs. A. E. Gilmore of Portland, first vice-president; Mrs. Wendell L. Van Loan of Corvallis, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom, Salem, recording secretary; Mrs. Loyd F. Carter of Portland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Salem, past state president.

Mrs. Scott Samsel of Chapter BQ introduced the state officers and presented corsages to them and to all the charter members of Chapter BQ.

For the special program, Mrs. Marens Maltby sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Dobbs.

Flowers were received by the new group from the two chapters at Pendleton; a gift came from the Roseburg chapter and greetings were received from various other out-of-town chapters.

Salem's other five P.E.O. chapters, G, AB, BQ, BC and CB, all gave gifts.

At the tea, Mrs. Sprague and Mrs. Elstrom poured. The tea table was set with a light blue satin cloth, a centerpiece of pink, white and blue blooms, and pink tapers.

Monday evening, the newly organized chapter met for dinner at Cole's Chicken Diner, later meeting with the state organizer at the home of Mrs. Perry.

Wed at Woodburn — Mrs. Roy Lee West, above, the former Hazel Hermanson, was wed May 17 at Woodburn. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Engel Hermanson of Woodburn and Mr. West is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West of Salem. (Art studio picture.)
