Trade News: Marshall McKee, owner Valley TV Center, Woodburn, now has a new location in Salem at 2308 Fairgrounds road. The tower for the Eugene Television station owned by Gordon Allen has arrived. Network negotiations are currently under way also for the Eugene Channel 20 station.

Hal Davis, general manager of KGAE in Salem is one of the five speakers selected to speak at the annual Broadcasters Clinic in Portland June 25-27. Motorola introduced a new portable-clock radio during the month of May. New radio has both clock and radio features.

Rumors are flying around as bad as the raindrops. Let's take a look at a few: KPTV chiefs up all night Wednesday working on transmitter to eliminate the noise in your sets. Channel 6 is rumored to be on air in both July and November. These are just a few as there are too many to print.

KPTV will not televise the Indianapolis speed classic Memorial day. KGAE reports on it will begin at 7:30 a.m. in the morning.

Memorial Day

At Belle Passi

Woodburn—Annual Memorial Day services by local service organizations will be held at Belle Passi cemetery Saturday, May 30, beginning at 10:30 a.m. L. B. Detweiler is chairman for the American Legion post and Mrs. Detweiler will be in charge of the auxiliary services.

Practically all Woodburn stores and business houses will be closed for the day. The post office, banks, liquor store and city hall will also be closed.

The services will be conducted at the soldiers' monument at the cemetery and taking part will be the American Legion and auxiliary, Champoeg Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary, Spanish-American war veterans and the Woodburn National Guard company. The address will be by Rev. Ormal Trick of the Woodburn Methodist church, the invocation by Ray Shaner, followed by "To the Colors" by a bugler and the advancing of the colors.

Group singing will be led by Kenneth Thompson and flowers will be placed on the monument by the several organizations, a minute of silent prayer, a salute by the National Guard firing squad, "Taps" by a National Guard bugler and the benediction.

Members of the service organizations are asked to assemble at the cemetery south gate and be prepared to move at 10:25 a.m. The National Guard company will form on each side of the driveway inside the gate.
