ACORNS FROM THE

Oak Rooms
WITH DEL MILNE

"There's good news tonight folks, good news tonight!" . . . some of you folks will remember Chef Ed Peters who was chef at the Marion Hotel when this establishment was known from Seattle to Los Angeles for its famous foods, "Traveling men would drive 'til 4 p.m. in order to 'make Salem and the Marion'". Tourists would stop early or travel far in order to have a dinner here, townspeople just didn't consider anything but the Marion. We found out all these things when we made inquiry about this said Ed Peters. Well I started to work on Chef Ed who has been down south and I am very happy to announce he has decided to come back to Salem and to the Marion. As of Friday, May 29th, folks, you will recognize new styling of foods in our dining room, new and differently prepared foods, you will find not only a thrill but a great deal of satisfaction in dining at the Marion. Our patrons will be glad to hear this news and to all others we extend a sincere invitation to you to come in and get acquainted with this new dining achievement. You will become a regular patron of the Marion I am sure.

Sunday would be a good time to bring the family to the Marion Hotel dining room.

New opening time for the lounge is 12 noon, effective today.

In Salem It's the Hotel Marion, 3-4123
