PTA at Turner Helps Library

Turner — For the 1952-53 school term the PTA had as a project a library in and for the grade school, helping to plan it, helping to catalog books and repair old ones and bought curtains. At the last meeting held in May the PTA gave $50 to be used for the purchase of new books for the library.

During the school term the PTA gave $45 to help pay for the new movie projector purchased for the grade school.

The PTA has sponsored the Cub Scouts of Turner in the past and is planning to sponsor them again this fall when they reorganize in September.

The PTA discussed a school safety patrol at their last meeting.

The subject will be discussed again at the first PTA meeting this fall.

In the past two years the PTA has taken in $473.10 and paid out $444.75.

New officers elected for the PTA are Mrs. Robert Waldorf, president; Mrs. John Coleman, vice president; Mrs. Luella Robertson, secretary; Ben Brandon, treasurer.

The PTA also made corsages for the eighth grade graduation.
