ACORNS FROM THE Oak Room
WITH DEL MILNE

Like home cooking? Well who doesn't but that is no good reason to expect the misasu to stay home and cook all the time. In fact we have a deal down here at the Marlon where you can eat in our main dining room any evening or on Sunday for just $1.25. That is for dinner, of course if you just want a sandwich or salad or something light the price is lighter too. What I wanted to say about home cooking was that our bakers bakes ALL of our hot home made dinner rolls, our pies and our cakes. Yes, even our famous French bread. So when I say you get a home-cooked meal at the Marlon I mean just that. In fact it is probably more home-cooked than the meal you get at home. So let's give the wife a rest and a change, let's take her to the Marlon Hotel Dining Room.

In Salem It's the Hotel Marlon.
