

Junior Guild's Benefit to Be Next Wednesday

Guild Members Sponsor Benefits

Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Mrs. Miller B. Hayden and Mrs. Earl T. Andresen were hostesses Thursday morning for a coffee in the gardens at the Wilson home, the affair being one of a series of coffees and luncheons sponsored by members of the Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Proceeds go to the church building fund.

Institute for Parents of Visually Handicapped Due

The Oregon Lions club auxiliary has arranged its fifth annual institute for parents of pre-school visually handicapped children for August 7 to 13 at the Oregon state school for the blind at Salem, announces Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, Klamath Falls, president.

The Oregon Lions club auxiliary has arranged its fifth annual institute for parents of pre-school visually handicapped children for August 7 to 13 at the Oregon state school for the blind at Salem, announces Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, Klamath Falls, president.

During the coffee Mrs. George H. Swift poured. A bouquet of Shasta daisies placed in a green bowl centered the table. Prizes won in cards during the luncheon were won by Mrs. J. F. Causey and Mrs. Miller B. Hayden.

The big project of the summer for the guild will be the benefit card party and tea next Wednesday afternoon, August 5, in the gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer C. Page.

The purpose of these classes is to aid parents in training their handicapped child to become a normal, adjusted member of the family and community and to ready them for school at the proper age. The gratitude and enthusiasm of parents who have previously attended these sessions, prove the importance of the institute's work, as does the increase in attendance each year, says Mrs. Humble.
