

Members of Wedding Party

Among mid-August brides is Miss Ruthita Willard, who is to be wed to Gordon K. Stein on August 15. Miss Willard is telling plans for the wedding this week-end.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 8:30 o'clock that evening in the First Christian church, the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. Peter Larson is to be the soloist, Mrs. J. M. Cracroft to play the organ.

Attending the bride will be Mrs. Donna Sawyer as matron of honor; Miss Marilyn Springer as maid of honor; Mrs. Billy Kelso and Mrs. Maurice Merrill as the bridesmaids.

Jack Stein is to be best man for his brother.

The ushers will be James Christian, Billy Kelso and Ronald Tatone.

The reception also will be at the church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Willard and Mr. Stein is the son of Mrs. William P. Stein of Canby.

Miss Willard was honored at a surprise kitchen shower for which Mrs. Billy Kelso and Mrs. Donna Sawyer entertained on Thursday evening at the Kelso home.

Feting the bride-to-be were her mother, Mrs. E. C. Willard, Mr. Stein's mother, Mrs. William P. Stein; Mrs. Jack Stein, Mrs. Don Hastings, Mrs. R. C. Willard, Mrs. Richard Trent, Mrs. Herbert Dalke, Mrs. Ray Rogers, Mrs. Kenneth Crick, Mrs. Ivan Eberly, Mrs. William Samarin, Mrs. Wilbur Pearson, Mrs. Robert Schunke, Mrs. Maurice Merrill, Mrs. Pauline Hillpot, Mrs. Dale Thompson, Mrs. Stan Sayles, Mrs. Gene Katter, Mrs. Earl Jaeger, Mrs. David Bartruff, Miss Marilyn Springer, Miss Shirley Thompson.

Past Oracles, Oregon Grape camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet Monday at the home of Miss Mary Champ, 1760 C street, at 8 o'clock. There will be election of officers for the coming year.

Several people from Salem will be in Portland next week-end to take in events planned for republican groups. The week-end events center around the $100-per-plate dinner set for Saturday.

Saturday afternoon a reception is planned between 3 and 5 o'clock in the Marine room of the Multnomah hotel to honor Leonard W. Hall, national republican chairman, and Mrs. Hall, who are to be in Oregon that week-end as special honor guests for the events planned.

Mrs. James W. Mott, Salem, vice chairman of the republican state central committee, is general chairman for the reception. She has named Mrs. Frederic Young of Portland, vice-chairman of the Multnomah county central committee, as chairman of arrangements.

Governor and Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, Secretary of State Earl T. Newby, State Treasurer Sigfrid B. Unander, State Labor Commissioner William E. Kimsey, Mrs. Marshall Cornett, republican national committeewoman from Oregon; J. J. Gard, republican national committeeman from Oregon; Robert A. Elliott of Medford, state republican central committee chairman; Mrs. Mott as state vice chairman of the central committee; Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, president of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women; Fred Robinson of Medford, president of the Oregon Republican Clubs; Mrs. H. D. Peterson of Dallas, head of the Oregon Council of Republican Women; and Douglas R. Spencer of Eugene, president of the Young Republican federation of Oregon, will be in the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. Earl T. Newby, Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander, Mrs. William E. Kimsey, Mrs. George Jones, all of Salem, Mrs. Eugene Marsh of McMinnville, Mrs. Rudie Wilhelm, Jr., of Portland, and Mrs. Robert A. Elliott of Medford, will be among those pouring during the different hours.

Chairmen and vice chairmen of all county committees and precinct committeemen and women are being invited to participate.

On Sunday, August 9, the republicans plan a big picnic at Laurelhurst park.

MRS. DALBERT J. JEPSEN AND SONS

SALEM FRIENDS will be saying farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Dalbert J. Jepsen and family who are moving to North Hollywood, Calif., to live. Mr. Jepsen to be on the faculty at Harvard school for boys. Mrs. Jepsen and the two sons, Peter, at left, and Carl, are pictured above. Several affairs have been given in farewell to them recently.

ANNUAL picnic for Past Presidents club of unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is arranged for next Thursday, August 6, in Bush's Pasture park. Members are to take the Mission street entrance. The dinner is to be at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen is general chairman and on the committee with her are Mrs. R. W. Wyatt, Mrs. W. W. Woodruff, Mrs. John A. Boening, Mrs. E. M. Bennett, Mrs. W. G. Nothelfer, Mrs. Clara Poland, Mrs. Jennie Bartlett, Mrs. Beth Coffee.

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the West Salem Methodist church is meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Chester McCain, 876 Piedmont. This is a general meeting for the group. Mrs. James Best is chairman for the program.

Susannah Wesleyan guild of the First Methodist church will meet Sunday at the Lodge at Silver Creek falls at 4 o'clock. Arrangements for transportation may be made by calling Mrs. Harry Swafford, 3-4302.

All Amaranth courts are invited to the state grand lodge picnic at Champeog park this Sunday, at 1:30 o'clock.

Copettes will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Vernon White on Bliler street, with Mrs. Clive Scott co-hostess. The group will make favors for the state hospital. All policemen's wives are invited to attend.

Cirque Club Dance Aug. 8

Cirque club's mid-summer informal dance is on the calendar for next Saturday evening, August 8, at Izaak Walton league clubhouse. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

There will be a snack bar throughout the evening. On the committee for this are Mrs. Theodore Flook, Mrs. Newbury Close, Mrs. Gordon Cooley, Mrs. Joe B. Richards.

On the decorating committee are Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Hazelett, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hay.

Woman's Society of Christian Service of Leslie Methodist church will sponsor an exhibit of old and unusual Bibles at its regular program and business meeting in the church parlors at 1:30 Wednesday. Anyone having an unusual Bible is invited to display it.

Mrs. Harold Allen will present a devotional program and Mrs. W. S. Ankney the program subject, "Making Friends of God's Children." Mrs. Roy Grette and Mrs. Lewis McRae will report on their week's attendance at the society's school of missions and Christian social relations recently conducted at Camp Magruder. Mrs. Ankney and Mrs. Everett McRae will report on visitors' day at the school.

Hostesses for the tea hour will be Mesdames Charles Vick, T. D. Trick, G. H. Templeton, and Joe Wood.

Attendants for Wedding Told

Members of her wedding party are being told by Miss Jeanne duBuy, who is to be married on August 14 to Glenn Lukinbeal.

The wedding will be at 8 o'clock in the evening of that date at the First Christian church, the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. Mrs. J. M. Cracroft is to be organist.

Mrs. Allen Craig will be matron of honor for her sister. Mrs. Karl Schmidt and Miss Ellen Reynolds are to be bridesmaids.

Best man is to be Allen Craig. Ushers will be David Lukinbeal, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Don.

The reception following is to be at the church also.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis duBuy and Mr. Lukinbeal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lukinbeal.

Some Notations . . .

By M.L.F.

Friday morning brought one of the late summer's delightful coffee parties when Mrs. Wayne F. Loder entertained at her Strong road home in compliment to Mrs. Ray A. McKinnie. . . Mrs. McKinnie recently returned to Salem to make her home and is being welcomed back by many friends. . . The Friday coffee was between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. . . It was a perfect morning for such an affair and friends thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful gardens at the Loder home, taking their refreshments outdoors to visit with others while drinking their coffee. . .

In line with the hostess and honoree was Mrs. McKinnie's daughter, Miss Marilyn Mount, who will enter the University of Oregon in the fall. . .

"Welcomed home" greetings were extended Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington, who returned earlier in the week with Mr. Huntington and their son, Kay, from three months abroad. . . Mrs. Huntington was assisting at the coffee but also was busy answering many questions about the interesting trip. . . In Amsterdam the Huntingtons met Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall and daughter, Julia, who are abroad. . . In Rome they met other Oregon friends by happen chance, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Auggins, Sr. of Coos Bay. . .

Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Sr., who was among those assisting, just returned from the beach this week, having been there the past two weeks with Mrs. Frank H. Spears and Mrs. T. W. Creech from Salem and Mrs. David M. Graham from Eugene, at the Spears cottage at Neskwon. . . Mrs. Spears and Mrs. Creech were due home today. . . Next week, Mrs. Dyer will be in Eugene to visit Mrs. Graham, formerly of Salem. . .

Mrs. F. D. Quisenberry, also among those assisting at the coffee, was eagerly awaiting the arrival of her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Dwight Quisenberry and their little son Stephen Dwight, later in the day from Fort Hood, Texas, Lt. Quisenberry having been stationed there. . . He will go overseas later this summer, Mrs. Quisenberry and little son to be at their home here. . .

Among others asked to assist at the coffee were Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. James B. Young, Mrs. Ercel W. Kay, Mrs. Charles H. Huggins, Mrs. Taylor Hawkins, Mrs. C. W. Paulus, Mrs. Robert J. Herrall, Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, Mrs. Linn C. Smith, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxon, Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. Paul R. Hendricks. . .

Chatting in the gardens during our call: Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr., Mrs. Lewis D. Gilfill, Mrs. Harry S. Dorman, Mrs. Jerald S. Backstrand, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. Harry H. Belt, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. John R. Caughell, Mrs. Frederick S. Lampert, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. Donald C. Roberts, Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce, Mrs. George Welker, Mrs. C. Kenneth Wilson, Mr. Brazier C. Small, Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mrs. Donald McCargar, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. John A. Heltzel, Mrs. William L. Lidbeck, Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, Miss Edith Schryver, Miss Beryl Holt, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. H. G. Maisson, both of whom leave this week-end for the gift market in San Francisco, Mrs. Maisson to be accompanied by her granddaughter, Carolyn Zoe Lowery; Mrs. Vine Buchholz, Mrs. William H. Hammond, Mrs. Howard A. Rex, Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Roderick Livesley, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson, Mrs. William J. Braun. . .

Executive committee of the Salem district of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in an all day session at the First Methodist church Thursday morning. Among members were several Salem women: Mrs. E. P. Goulder, conference secretary of spiritual life, and the following district officers: Miss Wilma DeVries, recording secretary; Mrs. Mervin J. Gilson, treasurer; Mrs. Laurance Walworth, secretary of promotion; Mrs. Roy Grette secretary of student work; Mrs. R. E. Wingard, secretary of supply work; Mrs. George Roseberry, secretary of missionary personnel; Mrs. C. W. Stacey, publicity chairman.

Mrs. G. Wesley Turner, formerly of Salem and now of Lebanon at this meeting was elected secretary of youth work; Mrs. W. F. Gulvin of Jefferson, secretary of status of women; Mrs. Arvid Olson of Albany, secretary of literature.

Mrs. Carl Oldham of McMinnville presided over the group which represents three thousand women in this district organized into 36 societies and 10 Wesleyan service guilds for employed women.

MRS. RICHARD A. BAKER

BRIDE TODAY at a ceremony in Eugene was Mrs. Richard A. Baker (Nancy Joan Byrne), above, daughter of Dr. Charles D. Byrne, chancellor of higher education in Oregon, and Mrs. Byrne. Friends from all parts of the state attended the wedding.

Baker-Byrne Wedding Is at Eugene

A wedding uniting two prominent Oregon families took place this afternoon at Eugene with friends from all parts of the state attending.

Wed were Miss Nancy Joan Byrne, daughter of Dr. Charles D. Byrne, chancellor of higher education in Oregon, and Mrs. Byrne, and Richard Andrew Baker, son of Alton F. Baker, Sr., publisher of the Eugene Register-Guard, and Mrs. Baker.

The service was at 3 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church, Bishop Francis P. Leipzig of Baker, long-time pastor at St. Mary's church in Eugene, officiating. Mrs. Dale Cooley was organist.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding dress of white nylon tulle embroidered all over with lily of the valley sprays of Schiffler embroidery, the dress being styled with full court train. The fingertip illusion veil was arranged from a beaded pearl crown. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis tied with white satin ribbons. Dr. Byrne gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. John P. Byrne of Oswego was honor attendant for her sister-in-law, Miss Sara Archibald, Grants Pass, Miss Sue Riddlesbarger of Eugene, Miss Nancy Vincent of Eugene and Miss Nancy Haglund of Tigard, all Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All attendants were attired alike in white organdy, full-length dresses with embroidered panels down the back threaded with pastel grosgrain ribbon, the honor attendant's in lavender, the others in other pastel shades. Each carried a white lace basket interwoven with ribbons and filled with pink and white blooms, and each wore a crown of white embroidered organdy.

Carol Little, six-year-old niece of the bridegroom, was junior attendant, wearing a miniature replica of the bridesmaids' frocks.

Herbert C. Baker was best man for his brother. The ushers included Alton F. Baker, Jr., and Edwin Baker, brothers of the bridegroom; John P. Byrne of Oswego, brother of the bride; Ralph Little, Eugene, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Kenneth Warren and John Akers of Eugene.

The reception was at the Byrne residence. Mrs. Ralph Little, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Robin Jones, Mrs. Herbert C. Baker and Mrs. Alton F. Baker, Jr., cut the cake. Mrs. H. A. Bork, Mrs. C. F. Wright, both of Eugene, Mrs. Frank Baker of Tacoma and Mrs. A. L. Strand of Corvallis poured. Others assisting were Mrs. Earl M. Pallett, Mrs. Adam Wilhelm, Mrs. W. Dolph Jones, all of Eugene, Mrs. F. M. Shideler of Corvallis, Mrs. Kenneth Hiron, Mrs. W. P. Riddlesbarger, Mrs. Kenneth Warren, Miss Joe Tallman, Miss Virginia Means, Mrs. Robert Newburn, Miss Alice Ann Wright, Mrs. James Magnuson, Mrs. Jack Jensen, Miss Betty Shideler, Miss Anne Allumbaugh. All white and pastel blooms were used in decorating at the wedding, and featured was a lighted bride's candle which is to be preserved to burn at each anniversary.

The couple will travel along the Oregon and California coast and will be at home in Merced, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the air force.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS ALDEN BRUNER

THE WEDDING of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alden Bruner (Barbara Jean Crawford), above, was an event of last Saturday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Crawford and the late Mr. Crawford. Mr. Bruner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bruner of Eagle Point. The couple will reside in Klamath Falls.

MRS. CHARLES PROCTOR AND FAMILY

AMONG newcomers being welcomed to the capital are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Proctor and family, who came recently from Laramie, Wyoming. Mr. Proctor being with the Oregon Farm Bureau federation. Mrs. Proctor and children are pictured above. The children are Carolyn 6, Rodney Kent, three months old, and Charles Robert, 9.