

Miss Higgins Wed July 24

Jefferson—Wed at a double ring ceremony Friday night, July 24, at First Christian church were Miss Shirley Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins, and Dale Wattenbarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wattenbarger. The Rev. M. N. McGill read the vows at 8 o'clock, before a setting of white tapers, and baskets of white flowers.

Mrs. Gilbert Looney sang, accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Balles.

Lighting the candles were Misses Donna and Doris Higgins, wearing dresses of green and white. Flower girl was little Nancy Robnett, in green nylon and wearing a picture hat. Her brother, Dennis Robnett, was ring bearer.

The bride's dress was made of slipper satin and beaded in rhinestones. It was princess style with long sleeves and sheer yoke edged in lace. A Juliet cap held the fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid and trailing white satin streamers. Something blue carried by the bride was a handkerchief with hand crocheted lace made by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Vernon May of McDonald, Ohio.

Maid of honor was Miss Darlene Haworth of Albany. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Adair and Mrs. Neil Stephenson. All wore pastel ballerina length dresses with picture hats and carried heart-shaped carnation bouquets.

Best man was Glen Hart and ushering were Neil Stephenson and James Blackwell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Higgins chose a print nylon dress with white accessories. Mrs. Wattenbarger wore a rose colored dress with black and white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Betty MacDaniel, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Barbara Blackwell served. Miss Judy Higgins, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Arranging the gifts were Mrs. Rodney Hart, Miss Florence Marlatt and Miss Delores Stephenson. Mrs. Barbara Greeley of Hoquiam; Wash., grandmother of Mr. Wattenbarger, was one of the wedding guests.

For going away, the bride chose a white sleeveless dress and a navy striped stole with white accessories.

The bridegroom will attend Oregon College of Education at Monmouth next term. Mrs. Wattenbarger will continue her work as typist in one of the state offices in Salem. Both are graduates of Jefferson high school.

Miss Keithley Is Bride at Stayton

Stayton—Wed recently at an impressive candlelight ceremony in the Stayton Church of Christ, were Miss Betty Jo Keithley and Julian Kinler. Tall white gladioluses and fern decorated the church for the 3 o'clock service.

The double ring ceremony was read by Allen Inglis, a cousin of the bridegroom, of Kings Garden school, Seattle, Wash., assisted by Glen Vernon, pastor of the Stayton Church of Christ.

William Covert, Jr., played the organ and Mrs. Dale Crabtree sang. The bridegroom sang "Because." Miss Carol Gavette of Marion and Tom Crabtree were candlelighters.

Miss Keithley was given in marriage by her father and wore a traditional white satin dress with net yoke. The long skirt fell into a chapel-length train. She wore the fingertip length veil of net and lace that her sister had worn. The bride carried a white Testament topped with a white orchid and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Don Chapman of Salem was matron of honor for her sister. She was dressed in a lavender frosted organza frock and carried a basket of baby gladioluses and lavender daisies tied with streamers to match her dress and headband.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Humble of Klamath Falls and Miss Genevieve Poole of Aumsville. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor, in pink and rose, and they carried baskets of daisies and baby gladioluses matching the colors of their dresses and headbands.

Little Susan Chapman, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a lavender dress like that of the matron of honor. Bill Frey, cousin of the groom, and Don Chapman, nephew of the bride, were ring bearers.

Best man was Raymond Frey, cousin of the bridegroom. Byron Gavette and Arthur Basl were ushers.

The reception was on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland C. Keithley of Rt. 1, Stayton. Serving were Mrs. Stan Smith, Mrs. William Covert, Jr., and Miss Jean Poole. Cutting the wedding cake were Mrs. Walter Frey and Mrs. Frank Forster. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Ward Inglis and Mrs. Raymond Frey poured coffee. Assisting were Mesdames Ben Basl, Clarence Gavette and Roland Darby. Miss Mary Frey passed the guest book. Mrs. Duane Wagner, Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Kenneth Limbocher of Eugene were in charge of the gift table.

The couple left on a trip to Banff and Lake Louise. The bride chose a lavender suit with white accessories for going away. Mrs. Kinler will teach at Stayton grade school this fall and Mr. Kinler has a woodworking shop in Stayton.

Golf Event

Woodburn—Twenty-one women were out for luncheon and play at the Woodburn Golf course Thursday. Mrs. Jamison of North Dakota, mother of Gladys Doerfler, was a guest. Hostesses at the luncheon hour were Ruth Reed and Mrs. Doerfler.

Play for the day was the closest tee shot to the cup on hole No. four, with Bea Palmer winning in Class A and Blanche Pickering in Class B.

Next Wednesday, August 5, the Woodburn women will be guests at Oak Knoll near Salem. Those wishing transportation should call Mildred Plank. Regular play will be next Thursday on the local course with Hazel Nyhus and Mollie Seydell of Silverton as the hostess committee.

Free Book on Arthritis And Rheumatism

HOW TO AVOID CRUELING DEFORMITIES

An amazing newly enlarged 44-page book entitled "Rheumatism" will be sent free to anyone who will write for it. It reveals why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble; explains a specialized non-surgical non-medical treatment which has proven successful for the past 33 years.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. Write today to The Ball Clinic, Dept. 2611, Excelsior Springs, Missouri.

Nitey Nite

SLEEPERS
Soft - Fleecy - Sizefast
MARGWEN'S
Capitol Shopping Center

Linoleum

NATIONAL BRANDS
CAPITOL FLOOR COVERINGS
217 S. High Ph. 48781

IT'S ASPIRIN AT ITS BEST... St. Joseph ASPIRIN

It's Johnson's for Jantzen

Merna Christenson
Sacred Heart Academy

Sally Graig
U. of Oregon

Pat Snyder
Oregon State

Pat Gordon
Salem High

Coralee Doughton
Willamette

These girls will be in Johnson's from now until school to show you all the wonderful new Jantzen Inseparables and help you properly choose the rest of your school wardrobe.

MEET JOHNSON'S 1953 COLLEGE FASHION BOARD!

Roll Collar Pullover

Flattering roll collar, looks and feels like cashmere, moth proofed, washable Kharafleece anklets and skirts to match

$8.95

Heart Collar Pullover

A new perfect Jantzen basic of washable Kharafleece, moth proofed, a rainbow of colors, add a Jantzen matching skirt and anklets . . .

$8.95

jeweled! Tie-on Collars

You can transform your basic sweater into wonderful evening ensemble by adding Jantzen's Jeweled Kharafleece collars to any sweater . . .

$4.95

Glamour Girl

Classic boxy cardigan, ocean pearl buttons, extra roomy, moth proofed, washable Kharafleece, 14 colors. Anklets to match . . .

$10.95

Johnson's

the store for ladies 464 State
YOUR BACK-TO-SCHOOL STORE

Fashion Luncheon News!

"Campus Editions of 1953" will be the theme of the first of this season's Fashion Luncheons presented by Johnson's in the Mirror Room of the Marlon Hotel, Tuesday, August 18th.

Make your reservations now! Phone 3-4123.

* color-mated to Jantzen's New Kharafianell Skirt.

FREE COKES

50c Down Will Hold Your Sweater!