Yakima Stops Salem 9-3, While Spokane Wins Two

Salem's slipping Senators alipped right out of first place at Waters park last night as Yakima hung a 9-3 defeat on the first half champions.

It was the third straight Western International league loss for the Senators In their loss for the Senators. In their last three league games, the Senators have scored a total of only four runs, while their opponents have scored 27.

Salem will attempt to get back on its feet in an 8:15 game with Yakima at Waters park tonight. Gene Roenspie, who has won 12 games and lost two with Salem this season, will carry the Senators' hopes to the mound with him tonight.

Danny Rios, Yakima right-hander, won his 15th game of the season (he's lost six) last night, though he was nicked for 11 hits. Salem batters got at least one hit in every in-ning but te first. The Senators left 12 men stranded on base y Yakima hammered on base.
