Hopewell

Hopewell — The annual Loop Reunion was held at Williamson Memorial State Park Sunday, Aug. 2, with 68 relatives attending. The group voted to hold the 1954 reunion at Netarts park, on Sunday, Aug. 2, 1954.

Those who attended the picnic and enjoyed the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Donahuer and Nancy of Amity, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frink and Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Art Leppin, Jr., and Linda and Elaine, all of Perrydale, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reed of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schiefelbein, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hansard and Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Loop, all of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Browning and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grant of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Loop, Johnnie, Glen and Sheryl, Mrs. Horace Edwards, Ray, Roberts and Edith Edwards, all of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Damswood, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Damswood and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Loop, all of Amity, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loop, Jr., Robbie, Roline and Roger of Milwaukie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loop, Sr., of Netarts, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Loop, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loop and four children, Mr. and Mrs. James Loop, Mr. and Mrs. Kyke and two daughters, all of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Freshour, Ronnie, Jerry and Lynn of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop of Hopewell, who were hosts for the day.

Amity

Amity — The Yamhill County Odd Fellows association held its annual picnic at Yamhill locks, near Lafayette, Sunday, Aug. 2.

A no-host picnic dinner was served at 1 p.m. Approximately 250 persons attended.

Most of the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah lodges of the county were represented. Visitors were from Portland, Albany and Oceanlake.

A. J. Lenon of Portland, past grand master of Oregon, was guest speaker. William T. Eberhardt of McMinnville spoke briefly regarding the possible closing of the park and the locks. Two other groups, the Masonic lodge and Eastern Star of Sherwood, and the Johnson - Old - Perkins clan held annual meetings at the same time.

Each of these groups had 125 in attendance, making a total of 500 persons visiting this popular spot for the day.

Donald

Donald — Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hendricks of Donald entertained her nephew, Ronnie Baumann of Westhope, N. D., Tuesday of last week. Ronnie had attended the Scout jamboree in California and was on his way home, but had an eight hour lay-over in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks met him in Portland and brought him out to their farm home. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vick of Tigard and their daughter, Patricia, were Sunday dinner guests in the H. R. Driever home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jaquith of Newberg were Sunday evening callers in the H. R. Driever home.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Feller and family drove to Maryhill, Wash., Sunday where they met former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Don and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Feller from Yakima, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Wetzell, Vernon Christopherson and family also drove over from eastern Oregon and they all enjoyed a picnic lunch.

"June-Bug" Feller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Feller, was kicked by a horse Wednesday of last week, and she was confined to the house for three days. It was necessary for the doctor to take nine stitches in her leg. A group was riding along together and one rider lost control of her horse, and the horses started kicking, and June-Bug's leg was in between.

William Wenzel of Aurora is painting and redecorating the Donald school in preparation for the coming school year.

J. W. McClure, who underwent major surgery at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland last week, is now at home and is able to be up and about a bit and to receive visitors. He returned to the hospital Monday to have the stitches removed. He is also able to have company now.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weathers of Salem were Sunday visitors in the J. W. McClure home. Mr. Weathers is a brother of Mrs. McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Scroggins and three children, Barbara, Eva and Bill, have sold their personal belongings in Donald and have moved to Nyssa, Oregon.

Mrs. Lin Cromwell's brother, Gale Bare, and his wife and son, Randy, have moved into a furnished house in Donald, owned by another brother, Alvin Peterson. It is the home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kruse. Mr. Bare is doing electrical construction work at Zig-Zag and drives back and forth. He said it was impossible to find housing in or around Zig-Zag.

Aaron Wilson is home on a 15-day furlough from Ft. Lewis, Wash., and while he is here, he and his wife, the former Mickey Peterson, will make their home with his mother in Hubbard. However, at present Mickey is assisting her sister, Mrs. Lin Cromwell, at the Donald garage putting "fingers" on the hop picking machines.

Miss Claudia Battersby of Portland spent last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Yergen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bair and daughter, Betty, spent the weekend on the Oregon coast. They left Friday evening in their trailer and returned about midnight Sunday. Some time was spent at Neptune state park with stops in between.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Haener and family enjoyed a family reunion with others of the Haener clan from Independence. The picnic was held at Agate Beach.

The annual North Dakota picnic was held at Island park in Canby Sunday. There were about 150 there. Donald residents attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Lin Cromwell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Peterson and family. There were a number there from Portland, Newberg and eastern Oregon. The children went swimming as well as some adults and games were played and a lot of conversation was engaged in.

Grand Island

Grand Island — Mrs. Jacob Tompkins, Sr., who has been at Culver, near Madras, caring for her bees which she is keeping in clover fields there, reports they are doing exceptionally well for this time of year.

She came home to get more bee supplies, Sunday.

Dale L. Fowler is preparing to start his table beet harvest at his Grand Island farm. He has 10 acres of them raised for Blue Lake processors at Salem.

Gervais

Gervais — Pvt. Fred Helmig, 21, Gervais, recently joined the 40th infantry division in Korea. Pvt. Helmig is a 1951 graduate of Gervais Union high school.

Firemen's picnic was held at the Oaks park in Portland recently. Ten firemen and their wives and families attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil DeBue-lauer of New Mexico were recent visitors of the Marion Drubas.

The Holy Name Sisters of Marylhurst were recent berry pickers at the Uppendahl farm. Sister Marita Rose, daughter of the Fred Mannings, visited her mother, Mrs. Fred Manning, who had a slight stroke recently but is recovering. Sister Mary Pauline accompanied Sister Marita Rose. Other visitors of Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Manning's brothers, Stan and Ted Pilllette, and wives.

The immediate family had a picnic at Marylhurst park with Sister Marita Rose, Sunday.

Freda Manning opened her beauty salon Aug. 3 after a two week vacation.

The Bill Uppendahl and family returned recently from a vacation which they spent partly with his brother Walt, also going to various parts of interest about the country. Mr. Uppendahl is custodian of Gervais Union high school.

Macleay

Macleay — W. Larson, who underwent a serious operation, is able to be up again.

Recovering from the flu is the Doyle Moore family.

Mrs. Harry Martin, Sr., was a Sunday guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kephart.

Discussions of business to come before the national Grange, musical numbers, and an article on vacation safety precautions will be features on the lecturer's program at the Grange meeting Friday night, Aug. 7.

This will be annual ice cream night.

TWINS BORN AT STAYTON
Stayton — The Stayton Memorial hospital is entitled to do a bit of boasting. Since July 11, four sets of twins have been born there. The latest set—a boy and a girl—was born Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Doran of Turner.
