

Miss Ojua Bride on Sunday

Hopewell — Exchanging their vows at a candlelight ceremony at the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren church Sunday evening, August 2, at 8 o'clock were Miss Helen Ojua, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ojua, and John L. Widmer, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Widmer. The Rev. Widmer officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 400 relatives and friends.

Baskets of pink gladioluses, white daisies and white hydrangeas decorated the altar with gandelabrams. Misses Jean and Judy Hewett of Oakland, Ore., cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. They wore floor length dresses of light aqua net over taffeta, with pink carnation wristlets.

Mrs. Ronald Craven of Salem was pianist for the ceremony, and accompanied Mr. Craven, who was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace over taffeta dress that was fashioned with full skirt and train, the bodice having a nylon yoke with lace appliques, and long sleeves. The fingertip veil was of silk illusion, with tiara of orange blossoms.

Miss Dorothy Brown was maid of honor and wore pink taffeta with a bertha collar and net overskirt, and carried a crescent bouquet of rose gladioluses with matching net headpiece.

Miss Ellen Widmer, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Aileen Allison were bridesmaids, wearing aqua taffeta with net overskirts, identical to the dress of the maid of honor. She carried crescent bouquets of pink gladioluses and matching headpieces.

Little Sue Ellen Maloney of McMinnville, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and Billy Vinton of McMinnville, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Nathan Widmer of Omaha, Neb., was his brother's best man. Richard Widmer, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert Stutsman of Woodburn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were groomsmen. Robert Janzen and Ray Wagler of Sheridan, cousin of the bridegroom, seated the wedding guests.

Mrs. Ojua attended her daughter's wedding in a royal blue dress with navy accessories and pink carnation corsage, and Mrs. Widmer chose a gray sheer dress with pink carnation corsage.

The reception was immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Nathan Widmer of Omaha, Neb., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Stutsman of Woodburn, sister of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake, which was made by Mrs. Carl Pajala. Mrs. Carl Rasaka, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Dewey Carico of Amity, cousin of the bride, poured the coffee. In charge of the gifts were Miss Marianne Vasey of Portland, Miss Roberta Patty of Ballston, and Miss June Ann Janzen. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Louis Juntunen of Beaverton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Marvel Brown and Mrs. Art Reed. Miss Mary Vinton of McMinnville, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For going-away, the bride chose a light blue tailored suit with navy accessories, and white orchid corsage. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Woodburn, where Mr. Widmer is employed.
