

Senators Defeated Again, 15-7

Roenspie Win Streak Stops After Eleven Straight

By CHRIS KOWITZ, JR.

Salem's slipping Senators continued their downward slide in the Western International league at Waters park last night, suffering their fourth straight loss as Yakima pounded out 18 hits for a 15-7 victory.

Gene Roenspie's winning streak was snapped at 11 games. The slight right-hander now has a record of 12 wins and three losses with Salem.

Roenspie was lifted in the eighth inning last night, and Jack Hemphill and Larry Borst finished out the game. Hemphill lasted only one-third of an inning.

Yakima batters had a field day. Two Bears hit home runs. Bob Wellman did it with no body on in the sixth and Phil Steinberg homered with two on in the eighth. Yakima also had two triples and one double.

The visitors registered extra base hits in six of the nine innings. Steinberg was the individual standout for the up and coming Bears. In addition to his homer, he had a double and two singles, for a total of four runs batted in.

Jimmy Deyo batted in three of Salem's runs. Don Masterson had two runs batted in, both on a double in the sixth. Dick Sabatini also doubled for Salem.

The two teams close out their Western International league series with an 8-15 game at Waters park tonight. Joe Nicholas is due to pitch for Salem.

The win boosted the Bears into third place, half a game ahead of Vancouver and a game and a half behind the Senators, who have lost nine of 11 starts in the last two weeks.

Bob Wellman and Bill Steinberg carried the big bats for the Bears.

Wellman contributed a solo homer in the sixth and Steinberg's round-tripper batted in two of the seven runs the Bears scored in the eighth.

Despite the loss, Salem retained its position two games back of front-running Spokane as the Indians went down 7-2 at Edmonton. John Conant, a former Indian hurler, checked his ex-teammates with six hits to rack up his 19th WIL victory of the season.

Al Helst homered twice for Lewiston as the Broncos upset Calgary's Stampede 7-3 in Calgary's short-field ball park. Charlie Meade's round-tripper in the ninth accounted for two of the loser's three tallies.

Vancouver also attempted a ninth inning rally but it fell short and Victoria came up with its only win of the three-game series at Vancouver. The Capitanos scored twice in the ninth and had the tying run on second with two out when Jack Bukowatz grounded out to give Victoria the game by a 4-3 margin. Bob Drilling took credit for the win, his eighth without a setback.

Keith Bowman spaced five hits, struck out five batters and walked two men as Wenatchee downed Tri-City at Kennewick. It evened the series at a game apiece.

Wenatchee and Tri-City and Salem and Yakima wind up their present stands with Thursday night's games. Spokane moves to Calgary Thursday for a doubleheader. Lewiston opens at Edmonton and Vancouver and Victoria renew their competition at Victoria.

Salem Legion Team Plays Benefit Game Next Week

Baseball fans of Salem will get a chance to see the state championship Salem American Legion baseball team in action at Waters park next week, a few days before the Capital Post squad leaves for the regional 11 tournament at Yakima.

Chuck Kerr, coach of the Albany team, is away on vacation, so the Albany team will be handled by Bob Robertson and Glen Wilfert here next week. Robertson is sports director of the city recreation department at Albany, and Wilfert, whose son is a pitcher on the Albany team, is a former Brownsville high school coach.

Salem and Albany American Legion teams will meet either Wednesday or Thursday night in a benefit game for Jack Loy and Vince Genna.

Loy is the 15-year-old left-handed pitcher who was stricken with rheumatic fever in mid-season this year, and is confined to his bed.

Genna is coach of the Salem team. He receives no remuneration for his efforts, though he takes many hours off work in order to coach the team.

Net proceeds from the Salem-Albany game will be used to benefit Loy and Genna. Loy is in need of a hospital bed and similar items.

Albany's Legion team is particularly anxious to get another shot at Salem, since Salem defeated Albany 8-3 in the opening round of the state American Legion junior baseball tournament at Waters park last week. Albany finished fourth in the state tourney.

YMCA Lead Sliced to Half Game in Industrial League

Wolgammott's moved within a half game of the front running YMCA last night when they edged Kay Woolen Mills 9-5.

In the only other game of the night First Christian defeated Mayflower Milk 5-2.

In Industrial League action tonight the Firemen met Keizer Electric at Phillip's, First National plays. Commercial Seat at Phillip's, and the Postal Clerks go against the YMCA at Leslie. The first game at Phillip's starts at 7 while the game at Leslie is at 6:30.

Wolgammott came from behind to take the Kay Woolen nine. The winners scored two runs in the final inning on an odd play.

Their two runs came when a runner was attempting to score on an overthrow and missed the plate. He attempted to get back and everyone rushed in to keep him from scoring.

Meanwhile Valdez was scoring the winning run while everyone was trying to keep the other runner from tagging the plate. Wickert homered in the third for the losers.

First Christian led all the way to hand Mayflower its 13th loss against two wins.

Emergency Fish Closure on Innaha River

An emergency angling closure to protect migrating spring chinook salmon in the Innaha river was put into effect by the Oregon State Game Commission August 3.

The following area is closed to all angling: From a rock slide at a point commonly known as "The Saddle" near the 15-mile post on the Innaha road, to a posted point approximately 300 yards downstream.

A recently developed rock slide was the cause of the closure. When the slide blocked the passage for the salmon, a small channel was constructed to let them pass, but there is a tremendous concentration of fish just below the slide where they are waiting to go on upstream.

Since the run up the Innaha is relatively small, it is essential that a sufficient number of fish be permitted to escape so that the run may continue in future years.

Dr. Edgar L. Harden, Michigan State's new faculty representative to the Western Conference, also is dean of Continuing Education Services for the school.

Dickson's ended its schedule on the right note with a 6-2 win over Berg's Keizer Market at Leslie. Loren Blaco hurled Dickson's to their fifth win against two losses.

Each team tallied once in the first frame, both runners scoring after having gotten on base by walks.

Tied at 1-1 the southenders scored five big runs in the top of the third. Bill Harrison started off the rally with a walk. Two more walks, an error, and a sacrifice netted Dickson's two runs. Jim Hoffman knocked in two runs with a triple to make the score 6-1.

The Keizer nine came back with one run in their half of the third and were held scoreless the rest of the game. Gene Gilbertson doubled in the first inning and had one other hit to lead the Bears attack.

Steinke's broke into the win column with a 5-4 win over Orchard Heights. A four run outburst by Steinke's in the fourth and final inning gave them the win. Hits by Jim Robinson, Pete Melin, Bill Jacobson, Wes Stewart, and Steve Stewart gave the Steinke's nine five runs.

Cockell, Matthews Clash in Seattle Tomorrow Night

Seattle—Their sights set on the heavyweight championship of the world, Don Cockell of London and Harry Matthews of Seattle come to grips here at Sicks' Stadium Friday night.

Cockell, British Empire heavyweight champion, and Matthews, No. 9 contender for the world's title, will punch in a scheduled 10-round encounter which will eliminate the loser from championship consideration and which will elevate the winner into a probable shot at Rocky Marciano.

The card will start at 8:30 p.m. and in the event of threatening weather Matthews and Cockell will take over the ring after the first preliminary. If the weather is clear they will start at about 9:15 p.m., with several of the preliminaries to follow the main event. There will be no broadcast or telecast of any bouts on the show.

Promoter Harry Glickman of the Seattle Boxing Club yesterday estimated a crowd of 15,000 fans and a gross gate of $100,000. He stuck by his original prediction, but pointed out that there are still plenty of good reserved seats available.

Priced at $6 grandstand and $10 ringside, these tickets will remain on sale at Sherman-Clay and the Seattle Boxing Club, 110 Cherry, until 5 p.m. Friday.

6000 general admission tickets, priced at $3 each, will go on sale at Sicks Stadium at 5 p.m. Friday together with any remaining reserved seats.

In any event, with more than $50,000 in the till early this week, the bout is a cinch to break all records for the Pacific Northwest.

Matthews completed his heavy drills with four rounds of boxing Tuesday afternoon, making a total of 50 rounds for the important international match. He planned a light loosening-up session for Wednesday.

Manager Jack Hurley, more worried each time he watched Harry's opponent in the gym, announced that "The Athlete" is in perfect condition. "He meets a tough, dangerous opponent," said the Deacon, "but he simply can't afford to lose and I don't think he will."

Cockell, confident of a victory in his American debut, planned to finish training with another boxing drill Wednesday afternoon. His training appearances have impressed turnaway crowds at the Evergreen gym and he'll be no worse than even money at fight time.

Fans from all over the Northwest, lured by the biggest fight event in a decade, will be in attendance, including large contingents from British Columbia, Idaho and all parts of Oregon and Washington.

Mangrum Says 'Hogwash' To Praise of Ben Hogan

Chicago (AP)—Lloyd Mangrum, golfdom's top money winner of all time, said today that some of the praise being heaped on Bantam Ben Hogan is "hogwash."

Mangrum, who sought his second "world championship" today at Tam O'Shanter Country club, where he has won the "All American" open three times, said statements that Hogan is the greatest golfer in the world "make me a little sick."

"Sure, Hogan's a fine player," Mangrum said. "But he's a long way from the best golfer that ever picked up a club. "Just let him play on the tour with the rest of us week in and week out and he's placed eighth or ninth occasionally and it wouldn't surprise me if he finished out of the money once in a while."

Mangrum said he knew "half a dozen" pros on the winter and summer circuit would "do just as well as Hogan if they could afford to pick their spots like he does."

In throwing cold water on the "greatest of all time" accolade for Hogan, Mangrum said he didn't want to "knock" the four-time National Open champion but "it's a little ridiculous, all this notoriety."

"Golf is my business," he said, "just like the boy that goes to the office. Sometimes I finish second or third and sometimes I don't even place. But that doesn't make me a bum."

"But there's an awful lot of people that think Hogan would win every tournament he entered just by showing up. Hogwash."
