Memorial to Honus

Sculptor Frank Vittor looks over a model of a statue of Honus Wagner, former Pittsburgh Pirate shortstop considered by many the greatest baseball player of all time. Portland Defeats Seals 4-2 in 22-Inning Marathon

San Francisco (AP) — The Portland Beavers scored two runs in the 22nd inning here yesterday to beat the San Francisco Seals, 4 to 2, in one of the longest marathons in Pacific Coast league history. The endurance contest, witnessed by 1395 die-hard fans, most of whom stuck it out to the bitter end, was the third 22-inning game in PCL annals but fell two innings short of tying the league record for longevity.

The Seals and Oakland battled 24 inning on June 8, 1909 and Portland and Sacramento went the same distance on Sept. 10, 1911.

The other two 22-inning contests were between Sacramento and Oakland in 1928 and Seattle and Los Angeles in 1921.

Portland's winning counter came across in the 22nd when Frank Austin singled to left; Hank Arft walked and Fletcher Robbe singled to bring Austin home. They added an insurance run a few seconds later when Bob Marquis singled to score Arft.

A total of seven pitchers saw duty on the mound—three for Portland and four for the Seals. Winning pitcher was Larry Ward who went in for Red Adams in the 20th. Adams previously relieved a tiring Royce Lint in the 15th. Losing pitcher was Ted Shandor who also entered the game in the 20th inning.

The two teams played scoreless ball from the 10th inning. San Francisco opened the scoring in the fourth when Frank Kalin walked, went to second on an infield out and scored on George Vico's single.

Portland tied it up in the fifth when Eddie Basinski singled and came home on Austin's bloop double.

The Beavers went ahead in the 10th when Jim Gladd walked; was sacrificed to second by Don Eggert and galloped home on Basinski's single.

It didn't last, however, as the Seals came right back to knot the score in the same inning when Lou Stringer came through with a clutch single to score Vico.

That set the stage for the marathon that eventually lasted four hours and 20 minutes.

Hollywood retained its six game lead over Seattle by trimming Sacramento 4-3 while the Suds were defeating Los Angeles in 10 innings, 8-7. San Diego dumped Oakland into the cellar, dribbling the Acorns

Broke the Tie
But the Rainiers helped Al Widmar win another when Gordie Brunswick singled home Artie Wilson with the tie-breaker in the tenth.

Dale Long clubbed his 25th homer in the eighth inning to give Hollywood the one run it needed to veto the Senators. Charlie Schanz threw the gopher ball and got the defeat.

Bill Howerton slammed his 23rd of the year in San Diego with two Acorns on the bag but even that wasn't enough to halt the Oaks' slide into the basement. Howerton's clout came in the first game against Willie Luna and that was all they could do against the southpaw from Tacubaya.
