

Congressman To Play Lot of Golf for Awhile

Washington (AP)—Jack Westland, a week-end golfer for the seven months congress was in session, opened a full-scale assault on the golf course Thursday to retain his national amateur championship.

Westland, a republican representative from the state of Washington, looked weary as he said:

"I'm going to play a lot of golf from now on."

The 48-year-old Westland hasn't had much time for golf since January when he came to the capital as the first sports champion ever to sit in congress. But he got in a few rounds with President Eisenhower, among others.

"I've only played twice in the last month," Westland said.

He'll get a chance on Saturday when he and two others tee off in a charity foursome with Ben Hogan.

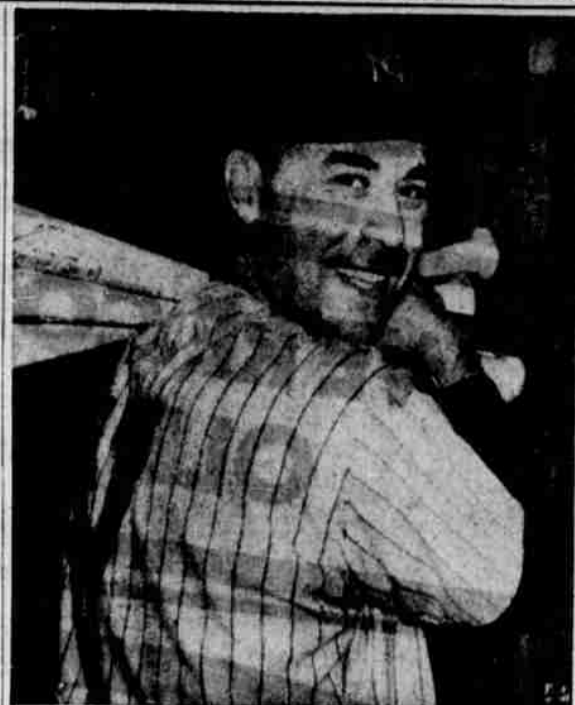

Then on Sunday he and his family will set off by car for Westland's home in Everett, Wash.

He'll have a chance for some fast rounds before he must return to Marion, Mass., for the Walker Cup matches against a picked squad of top golfers from England.

From Massachusetts, Westland will go to Oklahoma City for the National Amateur starting September 14. The Walker Cup matches will be played September 4 and 5, but Westland will be on hand for preliminary practice on August 24.

"When you're out of practice," he went on, "those chip shots land 30 or 40 feet from the cup, not five feet."

Westland predicted that the U. S. golfers would be able to take care of the Britishers in the Walker Cup matches, but said he looks for a series of tough matches. Westland himself has played two before in Walker Cup matches and has halved both his contests.

Vic Sets Record New York Yankees' hurler Vic Raschi totes seven bats—one for each run he batted in against the Detroit Tigers to set a runs-batted-in record for major league pitchers. Previous mark was six. He singled home two runs in the second inning; cleared the bases with a double in the third, and knocked home two more with a single in the fourth. Yankees won, 15-0. Manager Casey Stengel lifted the big righthander at the end of six innings. (AP Wirephoto.)

Albany (AP)—Phoenix Queens girls softball team downed Lind Florists of Portland, 5-3, here last night. It was the fifth win for the Queens in 11 games with the Florists.

Davis' Cut Lip Gives Aragon TKO in Ninth

San Francisco (AP)—Cocky Art Aragon was hollering today for a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight title, thanks to a smashed lip belonging to a game puncher named Henry Davis.

Aragon, the Los Angeles Golden Glove Boy, was behind on points last night in a 10-round struggle when he cut Davis' mouth in the ninth with a hard right. The fight was stopped in the 10th.

At the end of the ninth, Davis, a 4-1 underdog, was leading on both judges' cards 50-49, but trailing on Referee Frank Brown's 47½ to 51½. At 38½ he gave Aragon six pounds.

Blood spurted from Davis' mouth early in the 10th, and Brown sent for the state commission physician, Dr. Robert Ladden. Ladden looked at the lip and advised Brown to stop the fight.

Aragon, ranked No. 7 welter contender, and his manager Jimmy Roche said they want Kid Gavilan, the world welterweight king, next month in Los Angeles.

Slo-Mo-Shun V Badly Damaged In Trial Run

Seattle (AP)—With Sunday's Gold Cup field trimmed to six at least temporarily — after the Slo-Mo-Shun V ripped out part of her bottom in a 170 mile an hour speed run, none of the great speedboats had qualified early Thursday and the deadline was less than 48 hours away.

Meanwhile, repair crews worked without letup in a non-stop race against time to get the crippled Slo-Mo-Shun V in the water again before the end of qualifying trials for the "world series" of speedboat racing.

The "princess" of Stan Sayres' Seattle fleet of two Slo-Mos met disaster late Wednesday as driver Lou Gageol, Detroit, Mich., gunned her hard at near-top speed on Lake Washington to test her pickup.

A propeller blade snapped, the "prop" flew off and the driveshaft whipped into a corkscrew that tore planking and struts out of the hull from the cockpit to the stern.

Later the Slo-Mo V, 1951 winner of the Gold Cup on the same waters, was taken to the boat yard of her builder, Anchor Jensen, where three shifts of crews began an around-the-clock gamble they could get her back in running shape by late Friday.

Still left in the running are the defending champion sister-ship, Slo-Mo-Shun IV, winner in 1950 and 1952, and five challengers from Detroit.

Yankees Peoved At Mantle for Failure in Clutch

By CARL LUNDQUIST

New York (AP)—Mickey Mantle's failure to hit in key situations put Yankee Manager Casey Stengel in a peevish mood today.

Mantle may be the new golden glamour boy of the Yankees with his long distance swinging efforts, but he never will be an all-around star with his boss until he quits "trying to kill the ball."

Wednesday's Results:
New York 3, Detroit 4.
Boston 5, St. Louis 8.
Washington 11, Cleveland 4.
Chicago 9, Philadelphia 7 (14 innings).

National League
Brooklyn 9, Brooklyn 2.
Chicago 2-7, New York 6-6 (2nd game 10 innings).
Pittsburgh 4, Cincinnati 4.
Philadelphia 7, St. Louis 3.

Stengel was a little unhappy even though the Yankees had pounded out 10 hits in a 5-4 victory over Detroit because they wound up leaving 10 men on base.

Mad at Mantle

"Sure we're hitting again, but we're hanging up too many runners," he said. "And that boy (Mantle) is leaving a lot of them on because he won't hit to the opposite field. He thinks he's got to go for the big blast all the time. Well, in this game he left two on in one inning and then he strikes out with the bases full another time."

In the National league the Braves cut Brooklyn's lead to 7½ games again with a 5-3 triumph when pinch-hitter Walker Cooper drove in the winning run in the eighth with a single. Carl Furillo earlier hit a Dodger homer as Brooklyn blew a 3-0 lead when Milwaukee scored two in the seventh then clinched it in the eighth.

Pittsburgh also came from behind again to defeat Cincinnati, 6-4, as Hal Rice hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning. Other Games

The Cubs beat the Giants twice, 9-6 and 7-6, the second in 10 innings. In a night game, the Phillies downed the Cardinals, 7-3.

The Giants' double loss ran their losing streak to six games. Johnny Klippstein gained his sixth victory for the Cubs in the opener, with late-inning help from Dutch Leonard.

For the Phillies, Bob Miller scattered seven hits, including Stan Musial's 14th homer, to get his fourth win.

The White Sox remained five games behind the Yankees by beating the Athletics, 9-7, in 14 innings when Sam Mele broke up the game with a two-run homer.

In other American league games, Bob Porterfield of the Senators allowed only six hits as he whipped Cleveland 11-0, for his second straight shut-out and seventh shutout among 13 wins; and the Red Sox blanked the Browns, 5-0.
