

Duo Feted By Grange

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Eucker, (Doris Stevens), Salem, who were married recently, were congratulated by the Oak Grove Grange when members and guests and relatives of the couple gathered at the Community hall, Friday evening.

One table held the gifts for the couple, and another table was centered with a cake decorated especially for the occasion.

Before the gifts were opened, Mrs. Davis Allen pinned a corsage of red carnations on Mrs. Eucker's suit dress.

Misses Phyllis and Judy Stevens, cousins of the bride, entertained with two duet piano numbers. Impromptu snapshots of the friends gathered, of the couple honored, and of the tables, were recorded by camera fans of the bride.

Mrs. Clarence Bergquist, Mrs. Guy Vaughn and Mrs. Floyd Allen were the committee serving.

Gifts were received from the following: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Damewood and Nancy, Nellie V. White, Jimmy Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Gilson, Mr. and Mrs. Derrel Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mr. and Mrs. John McRae, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wells, Florence Ragsdale, Ron and Loren Bartlet, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eucker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Picha, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Austin King.

Duo Tell Troth

Lebanon — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Trigg are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nancy Mae Trigg, to Raleigh McVicker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh S. McVicker of The Dalles.

The betrothed couple are graduates of Lewis and Clark college, where Miss Trigg was affiliated with Theta Kappa. Her fiancé's fraternity was Kappa Phi Alpha and he is also a member of Phi Mu Alpha music honorary.

The bride-elect taught in Portland last year and will enter Stanford university this fall for her master's degree.

Mr. McVicker, assistant organist at the Portland First Presbyterian church for the past two years, will head the choral music department in Astoria high school this fall.

The wedding date has not been announced.

PLANS FOR a picnic to be August 21 were discussed at the business meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Wesley Zellner is in charge of the plans.

AMONG visitors in the city is Miss Clover Miller of Oakland, Calif., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roma Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

Salmon Dinner Planned for Club

Co-Rec club will meet at the YWCA on Friday, August 7 at 6:30 p.m. Salmon caught by the group on a recent week-end beach trip will be served at dinner. Hostesses will be Miss Florence Goodridge and Miss Elizabeth Beat.

New officers will be elected to the governing council during the business meeting.

For evening entertainment, the group will attend the Newberg Farmeroo.

Single young adults of the community are invited to attend the weekly activities of this co-ed recreation group. For further information, they may call at the YWCA office.

At Golf Day

About 20 Woodburn women golfers were guests of Oak Knoll Women's Golf club, Wednesday. In the play for the day, low gross winners were Mrs. John Schmid and Mrs. George Jones of Woodburn and Mrs. James Barrell; for low net, Mrs. George Cooper and Mrs. Merritt Truax; closest to pin, Mrs. Cutsforth; longest drive, Mrs. Edgar Tweed. Next week the Oak Knoll ladies will entertain the Riverwood club women.

Writers Club

Driving to Woodburn Tuesday evening were members of the Salem Writers' club who met for a no-host dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Merriott.

During the evening, plans for a dinner to be October 15 in observance of National Poetry Day were made.

Awarded first prize recently was Jessie C. Singleton's poem "Early Rising," which was read on a local radio program.

A lyric poem, "When the Grain Is Gathered," by Fern McNalle (who writes under the pen name Cora Mae Secord) was set to music and sung by Mrs. Carol Shelton at Talbot Community church recently. Mrs. McNalle also had a poem accepted by one of the religious magazines and won second prize in a national safety contest.

The September meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jessie C. Singleton with Miss Renska Swart as co-hostess.

Members present were Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Anderson, Mrs. Jessie Singleton, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Miss Renska Swart, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Layton, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cronemiller, Dr. Mary Rowland, Mrs. Robin Moser, Mrs. John McNalle, Joseph Singer, Perry Reigleman and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Merriott.

WILLIAM G. PAULUS entertained Don Tipton and Rick Thacker of Portland and Ray Atkinson of Newport at the beach home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Paulus, at Roads End the past week-end.

The four young men were all graduated from University of Oregon in June and received their commissions in the service at that time. Three of them, Mr. Paulus, Mr. Tipton and Mr. Atkinson, left Wednesday for Parks Air Force base in California to report for active duty, then will go to Hondo Air Force base at Hondo, Texas for flight training. Mr. Thacker is to report for duty at Fort Sill, Okla.

Miss Doyle Visits

Interesting visitor in Salem over Wednesday was Miss Dorothy Doyle of Boston, Mass., now an army librarian with the American forces just out of Paris, France. Miss Doyle has been on leave in the States and is returning to Europe this week. While here she was guest of Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, the two having been friends when Miss Doyle was in library work in Tillamook, Oregon.
