

Miss Pippin Wed Sunday

A wedding Sunday at the First Methodist church was that of Miss Shirley Pippin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Pippin, and Richard Dodele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dodele of Independence.

Dr. Brooks Moore officiated at the 3 o'clock service. Miss Shirley Gray of Independence sang and William Fawk played the wedding music.

The church was decorated with gladioluses in shades of pink to rose.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white imported lace over satin, with tiers of nylon tulle ruffles down the back, full skirt and a long train. The dress was fashioned with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, and embroidered motif outlining the bodice. The fingertip silk illusion veil extended from a half cap of embroidery sequins and pearls. The bride carried a fan shaped bouquet of white stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Barbara Pippin was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a dusty rose ballerina length dress with satin bodice and net skirt, a picture hat of dusty rose net and matching shoes. Her flowers were pastel pink asters arranged in fan shape.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Pippin, sister of the bride, Miss Nadine Holsworth, of Oregon City, Miss Evelyn Ruthruff, of Albany, Miss Rahna Harpole, of Independence. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendant's except they were in blue. They also wore matching shoes and picture hats, and carried fan shaped bouquets of pink asters.

Flower girl was Sonnie Holt. She wore a dress made similarly to the bridesmaids' dresses in white net over rose satin. Jimmie Pippin, brother of the bride was ring bearer.

Best man was Lee Ruthruff. Bob Winn, Gerald Reynolds, and Mickey Bradsdoff, were ushers.

The bride's mother attended the wedding in a long dress of blue taffeta, and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink elfe roses. Mrs. Dodele wore a pink dress and corsage of deep pink roses.

The reception following was in the church parlors. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Charles Kurra, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ade Dorinson. Assisting were Miss Carol Pippin, Miss Nadine Holsworth, Miss Evelyn Ruthruff, and Miss Rahna Harpole. Miss Shirley Taggart was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to California the bride wore a white suit with white picture hat and gloves, and red shoes and bag. The couple will be at home in Corvallis.

SALEM HEIGHTS — Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Janice Aileen, Saturday, Aug. 1, at Eugene to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Larsen (Elsie Douglas). Rinso Guide to Soaps and Detergents

These helpful directions explain for the first time which to use for every job. Presented by Rinso, the only brand to offer you both— famous Rinso Soap and sensational new Rinso Detergent.

BLANKETS: Use the Soap
Blankets shouldn't stay in your washer more than a minute; agitation while wet shrinks them. Rinso Soap removes a lot of dirt fast—and leaves your blankets soft and fluffy! Yet you now pay about 5¢ less for it than for detergents.

CURTAINS: Use either
As long as you make plenty of suds, either product will do a beautiful job of washing your curtains. Both Rinso Soap and Rinso Detergent get curtains dazzling white—for an interesting reason. Both Rinsos contain SOLIUM.

DIAPERS: Use the Soap
One sure way to be careful of baby's tender skin is to use only soap for washing diapers and all baby clothes. The mild, gentle soap in Rinso Soap leaves diapers extra soft and non-irritating. The SOLIUM leaves them white as snow!

DISHES, GLASSWARE: Use Detergent
Everybody knows detergents do a better job on your dishes than soap. But this new Rinso Detergent does even more—it washes up to twice as many dishes as the most popular detergent, and is wonderfully gentle to your hands.

DRESSES: Use either
Your white dresses look whiter than new, print dresses brighter than new, washed in Rinso Soap or Rinso Detergent—thanks to the SOLIUM. Rinso's rich suds remove dirt so efficiently that most stains need hardly any pre-scrubbing.

LINOLEUM: Use the Detergent
If the linoleum is really dirty, use a detergent to get it clean before you wax. Rinso Detergent suds are particularly good for removing greasy or sticky stains from your kitchen linoleum. Use as little water as possible.

WORK CLOTHES: Use either
Choose either Rinso for doing work clothes. Rinso Detergent is exceptionally good in hard water, and you don't have to rinse unless you want to. Rinso Soap gets out slightly more dirt, and you now pay about 5¢ less for the Soap.

SHIRTS: Use either
Your husband's shirts will turn out gloriously clean and white, washed with Rinso Soap or new Rinso Detergent. We guarantee he'll be delighted. The SOLIUM in these two extraordinary Rinsos will give him the whitest shirts ever.

SYNTHETIC FABRICS: Use either
You can safely wash almost any fabric in the friendly suds of Rinso Soap or Rinso Detergent. Not only your cottons, but also the new synthetic fabrics. They'll all be perfectly at home in gentle, thorough-cleansing Rinso.

TOWELS: Use either
Your white towels will be whiter than new—and wonderfully fluffy—if you wash them in either the Soap or the Detergent. Why? Because both Rinsos are perfect helpers for getting out dirt. What's more, both Rinsos contain SOLIUM.

WOOL SWEATERS & SOCKS: Use Soap
If you want your wool sweaters and socks to stay soft, wash them in soap suds. Home economists will tell you that washing with Rinso Soap removes less of the natural oil from the wool, and this helps keep it soft and fluffy.

SHEETS: Use either
The truth is that either the Soap or the Detergent will do your sheets to perfection. Both Rinsos contain SOLIUM, to leave your sheets white as can be. And both leave sheets so soft and smooth, you only have to iron the top quarter.
