Local Man Wed Aug. 1 In Tokyo

Announcements have come to Salem friends telling of the marriage of Miss Jean Keith of Applegate, Ore., to Robert R. Boardman, Jr., of Salem. The wedding was an event of August 1 as an afternoon ceremony in the Tokyo Union church, Tokyo, Japan. The couple planned their honeymoon at Atami, known as the "Riviera of the Orient," then were to go to Formosa and on to Okinawa. Both are in church work with the Navigators and will be stationed on Okinawa. Mr. Boardman is the son of Mrs. Robert R. Boardman of Salem and the late Mr. Boardman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Keith of Applegate, Ore.

New Officers for Co-Rec Club Named

New officers to serve for the coming six months have been named by the Co-Rec club of the YWCA. Ed Wulff is the incoming president. Serving as vice president in charge of program is Miss Helen Tibbets. Miss Florence Goodridge, Miss Willa Till, Ervin Lay and Clay Rambo have been elected as members of the executive council.

On the transportation committee are Miss Willa Till, Jay Blair and Denis Lavender. Miss Goodridge will be chairman of the hospitality committee.

At a joint meeting of old and new officers, plans were made for a scavenger picnic to be in Woodburn on Friday, August 14. The evening program will feature swimming. The group will leave from the YWCA at 6:30 o'clock.

Any young adult desiring to attend should telephone the YWCA for further information.

Son for Robisons

From Oakland, Calif., comes announcement of the birth of a son, Richard Manley, to L. and Mrs. Gerald M. Robison, on Saturday, August 8. L. Robison is stationed with the supply depot of the navy at Oakland as a legal officer. Also welcoming the little boy is a sister, Kathleen Claire. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker of Salem, this being their fifth grandchild and first grandson; and Mr. and Mrs. Manley Robison of Salem.

Mrs. Parker has gone to Oakland to be at the home of her daughter for two or three weeks.

VISITING here over Sunday and Monday were General and Mrs. Frank J. Baum of Los Angeles who were guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brubeck. The Baums were en route home from a vacation trip north.

Earlier this month, the Brubecks and children, Donald and Shannon, were on a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

Blueberry Boston Cream Pie
Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs (separated and at room temperature) 1/2 cup cold water, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla 3/4 teaspoon lemon extract, 1 cup heavy cream (whipped), 1 pint cultivated blueberries.

Method: Line bottom of two 8 by 8 by 2 inch pans with waxed paper; grease paper. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Beat egg yolks and water until tripled in volume. Gradually beat in sugar. Continue to beat until light colored and thick enough to mound slightly — about 10 minutes. Stir in flavorings. Add flour mixture all at once; fold it in. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold into yolk mixture until blended. Pour into prepared pans. Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until done. Invert pans on cake rack until cake is cold. Remove from pans; remove paper. Put a generous layer of whipped cream and berries between cakes; top with remaining cream and berries.
