

Duo Wed At Keizer On Sunday

Keizer—Miss Mary Charlotte Holmquist, daughter of the Rev. George L. Holmquist, pastor of the Faith Lutheran church in Keizer, and Mrs. Holmquist, and E. David Knutson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Knutson of Gruver, Texas, were married Sunday, August 9, at a 4 o'clock ceremony at Faith church with the father of the bride officiating.

The bride wore a dress of nylon tulle accented with lace applied flowers and topped by a figure-molding bodice of imported Chantilly lace. The skirt under the tulle was of all-over lustrous satin forming a long train. The illusion net veil was worn with a seed pearl head-dress. A strand of pearls was the gift from the bridegroom. The bride's flowers were baby yellow roses and stephanotis centered with a white fringed orchid corsage with white ribbon cascade.

A sister of the bride, Miss Ruth Holmquist was maid of honor. She wore a yellow dress with a lace bodice, and a net over taffeta skirt made floor length. She wore lace mitts and a headpiece of yellow gladioluses and rosebuds in crescent shape trimmed with green ribbons.

Bridesmaids were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jon Ericson and Miss Kathryn Knutson. They were attired in green formals and wore chain and pearl necklaces and bracelets, gifts of the bride.

Best man was Carl Holmquist, brother of the bride. Ushers were Jon Ericson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ray Holmquist, brother of the bride.

Ray Holmquist sang. Mrs. George Gillis played the organ.

The mother of the bride wore a beige lace over yellow satin with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a light brown dress with beige trimming with hat to match. Both mothers wore yellow rosebud corsages.

The candlelighter was Jon Holmquist. The guest book was in charge of Miss Eleanor Hansen of Eugene.

The reception was in the fireplace square on the church lawn. Miss H. Poff and Mrs. P. W. Erickson poured. The bride's cake was served by Miss Ruth Holmquist. Helping in serving were Misses Shirley Bagger, Beth Braff, Joretta Braasch, Twila Gillis, Elaine Magnuson and Dorothy Morse. In charge of the gifts were Mrs. James Laskie and Mrs. Gilbert DeHut. A yellow, white and green color scheme was carried out in decorations in the church and at the reception.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Reinertson of Portland, Mrs. Holy of North Dakota, the Rev. and Mrs. Hjortholm and Oscar Birely of Parkland, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hamilton and Mrs. Carrie Laird of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. James Williamson of Hoquiam, Wash., and Miss Eleanor Hanson of Eugene.

For going away, the bride wore a blue linen dress with lace jacket and white accessories and a white corsage from her bouquet. The newlyweds will take a wedding trip through the south to Texas. Both will finish college next year at Oklahoma A and M in Stillwater, Okla. They will live at Texhoma, Okla.

Legion Auxiliary Group Entertained

A no-host picnic supper was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. D. Apperson, president of Capital unit American Legion auxiliary, for the board. At each place was a place card holding a handkerchief and a souvenir from Okinawa. A short board meeting was conducted and action taken on the date of installation, which will be on Monday, September 28, in the American Legion club, instead of the usual date of September 21. Capital post and the unit will stage a joint installation.

The final board meeting with Mrs. Apperson in the chair will be on Monday, September 14, with a no-host luncheon in the Senator hotel.

Those present at the picnic included officers and chairmen for the past year: Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. Ray Bassett, Mrs. Glen Burright, Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. Jennie Bartlett, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. T. J. Brabec, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. James H. Turnbull, Mrs. Florence Ames, Mrs. W. L. Osborne, Mrs. A. G. Foreman, Mrs. Nell Witting, Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Fred Mathieu, Mrs. Glen Holman, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. Lucas Vogt, Mrs. Earl T. Andresen, Mrs. C. W. Jorgensen, and Mrs. Apperson. Mrs. Austin H. Wilson.

The next regular meeting of Capital unit will be in the Woman's club on Monday, October

5. Mrs. T. J. Brabec will be installed as president of Capital unit on September 28 and John E. Wood as commander of Capital post.

HOME FROM a five weeks' trip around the country are Mrs. Marjorie Woods and daughter, Miss Charlen Woods, Mrs. Ella Durkee, Miss Gladys Zell and Miss Sidney Shepard of Portland, formerly of Salem. They traveled through the midwest and went on to Virginia to visit a brother of Mrs. Woods, Don C. Crow. They went to New York City, to Florida and other eastern cities and en route home stopped at various national parks, coming home via Las Vegas and Crater Lake. Mrs. Woods and daughter will leave this weekend for supreme sessions of Job's Daughters in Portland, and in the early fall Miss Woods will leave for Corvallis to enroll at Oregon State college.

Shower for Couple

Hopewell—A shower in honor of newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gilkey, Forest Grove, was at the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren church, Saturday evening, with about 35 friends and relatives attending.

The program was in charge of Miss Virginia Magnus and consisted of piano selections by Miss Aileen Wilson; vocal solos by Mrs. Richard Jones, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Withee; a talk and presentation of gifts by John Geisler and prayer by Adelbert Smith. The basement was decorated with pink, blue and white hydrangeas in baskets and the honored guests received many gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Fuqua, Mrs. Eugene Wilson, Mrs. Roy LaFollette and Mrs. Ross Rogers.
