Miss Finnicum Wed on Sunday

Grand Island—Miss Delores Elaine Finnicum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finnicum of Grand Island, was wed to Willard Ivan Wivell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wivell of Shelton, Wash., at the First Baptist church in McMinnville, Sunday afternoon, August 9.

The church was decorated with white and yellow gladioluses, fern and candelabras. Lighting the tapers were Miss Joyce Givens and Miss Janet Goodrich of McMinnville, both wearing ballerina dresses of green and lavender.

Dr. Henry performed the 2:30 o'clock service. Ed Bradshaw sang, accompanied by Mrs. Jack Forsythe, who also played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a waltz length dress of white net and lace. It was fashioned with long sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. The fingertip veil was of net with lace edging, and extended from a Band of orange blossoms. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a white and lavender orchid.

Miss Lavonna Finnicum was maid of honor. She wore a strapless waltz length dress of blue net with dark velvet ribbon, and a stole.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ilona Mead of Nehalem and Miss Marilyn Hokert of Carnation, Wash., both sorority sisters of the bride. They wore lavender dresses like the one worn by the maid of honor.

Best man was Bill McGee of Shelton, Wash. Ushers were Ronald Finnicum, brother of the bride, and Frank Guyer, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother attended the wedding in a beige dress with pink and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with pink accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception followed in the fireside room of the church. Summer flowers and candles decorated the room. Mrs. Alex Cregor of Lebanon, cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Frank Guyer, of Shelton, Wash., sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ronald Finnicum of Dayton, sister-in-law of the bride.

When the couple left on a trip to the Oregon and Washington beaches, the bride wore a brown and white checked suit with brown and white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

After August 15 the couple will be at home in Shelton, Wash.

The National Geographic Society says nearly 20,000 Englishmen settled in and around Massachusetts Bay Colony from 1630 to 1642.

Kartevold-Bennett Wedding August 6

Sweet Home — Miss Grace Bennett and Don Kartevold were united in marriage in a ceremony in the judge's chambers in the Albany courthouse Thursday, August 6.

Attending the couple were Miss Esther Bennett and Dick Zurcher. Mrs. Mathilda Kartevold and Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett were the only guests.

The bride wore a blue dressmaker suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible with a corsage of white rosebuds topping it. Her sister, Miss Esther Bennett, wore a beige suit with brown accessories.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Milburn building. A two tiered wedding cake flanked with yellow tapers carried out the theme of white and yellow with the baskets of flowers.

Miss Janet Kartevold, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guestbook and Miss Margie Kartevold, another sister, served the punch. Miss Helen Wisdom cut and served the wedding cake to the more than 70 guests.

Mr. Kartevold is a 1953 graduate of Sweet Home union high school. The bride also attended Sweet Home high school.

Mrs. James McKay and her daughter, Diane, were hostesses for a bridal shower honoring Miss Bennett recently.

The rooms were decorated with spring flowers. Games were played, with Mrs. Claire Richter and Miss Grace Bennett the winners. Refreshments were served after the honor guest opened her gifts.

Guests were Mesdames Joe Ponzon, Claire Richter, John McCall, John Bennett, Kenneth Smith, Al Brown, Matilda Kartevold, Norman Willoughby and Misses Esther McCall, Shirley Statham, Janice Statham, Peggy Stokes, Pat Stokes, Louise Land, Janet Kartevold, Margie Kartevold.
