

Wedding At Albany Recently

Albany—An event of Tuesday, July 28, was the wedding of Miss Diana Mae Hoenselaar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hoenselaar and Donald Lee Geister, son of Mr. and Mrs. LuVern Geister, all of Albany, at St. Mary's Catholic church. The double-ring morning service was performed at 9:30 o'clock with the Rev. Phillip Goowney officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a waist-length dress with nylon net yoke and long, pointed sleeves. The fingertip veil was held in place with a Juliet cap trimmed in seed pearls. The bride carried a white satin prayer book topped with a lavender orchid with white streamers and white stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Hoenselaar, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a lavender waist-length dress with white accessories. She carried a Colonial pom-pom bouquet of yellow gladioluses and white stephanotis.

Miss Beth Geister, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Gloria Geister, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids, wearing dresses similar to that of the maid of honor and also carrying bouquets of yellow gladioluses. Jacqueline Jean Geister was the flower girl, with Richard Hawkins as ring bearer.

William Geister, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, with Richard Green of Stockton, Cal., and Richard Stockman of Springfield, serving as ushers.

Soloist, Miss Nancy Hoenselaar, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Hawkins at the organ. Mrs. Hawkins also played the nuptial music.

The bride's mother wore a beige, white and blue print sheer for her daughter's wedding, with blue hat and white accessories. Her flowers were white roses. A lavender nylon dress was worn by the mother of the bridegroom, with white accessories and white roses.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mrs. Charlotte Guthrie of Salem and Mrs. Clay Anderson of Albany cut the cake and served. Mrs. Ruth Stockman was in charge of the guest book. Miss Linda Geister, assisted by Karen Hawkins, served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Harlan Hawkins was in charge of the gift table.

For a short wedding trip to the California coast the bride wore a blue and brown check suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. After August 10 the couple will be at home in Corvallis, the bridegroom to continue his studies in architecture at Oregon State.

Gubser Safe In Log Mishap

Pleasantdale — So bruised and battered that he can hardly move, but feeling lucky to be alive, 26-year-old Don Gubser, log truck driver from Route 1, Dayton, is recovering in the McMinnville General hospital from injuries received when struck by a falling log which instantly killed another driver, Thursday, August 6.

Gubser was helping William Ace Robbins, 40, of Carlton load his truck in Elkhorn Canyon when the logs on the truck started to roll. "I'd just started to heave up on my peavy when I felt the log start to go. I'd warned Robbins to stand back because I didn't know what was going to happen," Gubser said. Gubser dived beneath the truck but was struck from behind and pinned by the log which fatally crushed Robbins. "He apparently got the full force of it," Gubser said, "and I was saved by the fact that the other end of the log hung up on the truck."

Gubser's injuries are described as chest bruises and cuts and contusions on the right side of his face. He was taken to the General hospital by McMinnville volunteer fire department ambulance.

Robbins is survived by his widow and three children of Carlton.

to work in Siberia instead of releasing them through the prisoner exchange, the South Korean ambassador to the United States said here yesterday.

He also said it would take $1,000,000,000 to rehabilitate his war-torn country to pre-war level.
