Time is fast approaching for that August 18th Fashion Luncheon, and after I finally get around to informing you about it, reservations have really been moving out. It seems that there are many fashion-minded daughters in this vicinity who are anxious to show Mother the latest in Back to School Fashions. Of course Mom can get a look at a great many fashions for herself too, as there will be a wide variety of styles shown. You Business Gals shouldn't miss this affair either, for what is good for the collegie girl is usually good for the office too. And by the way the Fashion Show is scheduled at 1:06 so as to give 1 o'clock lunchers time to get down here to see the show. Call the Marion Hotel for your reservations... luncheon at 12.15. Fashion show at 1:06.
