

Frontier Days Opens Sweet Home Program

Sweet Home (Special)—Hundreds of out-of-town residents are expected here Saturday, Aug. 15, for the event-filled final day of Sweet Homes sixth annual Frontier Days celebration.

On tap are a big buckaroo breakfast, the Frontier Days parade, a log truck rodeo, a flower and hobby show, carnival attractions, final performance of the "Chips 'n Splinters" comedy-variety show and a free outdoor dance.

The buckaroo breakfast, to many the highlight of Frontier Days, will be held between 6 and 9:30 a.m. in the Sweet Home city park. Adequate seating is assured, and plates, cups and utensils will be provided.

The menu, to be prepared on wood ranges by Rotary and Kiwanis club chefs, includes bacon, sausage, eggs, pancakes, hashed brown potatoes, juice, milk and coffee. Cost of the breakfast is $1, and for those who don't get their fill at the initial cafeteria-style serving, there will be a separate line for seconds.

In conjunction with the buckaroo breakfast, a "fly-in" has been arranged at nearby Langmack field for visiting pilots.

No-cost ferry service between the field and the breakfast site will be available.

The Frontier Days parade, this year with "Cascade Playground" as its theme, will get underway at 11 a.m. Saturday through the Sweet Home business district.

The log truck rodeo, in its second year as a top Frontier Days feature, is slated for 2 p.m. on the high school athletic field. There, some of Oregon's finest drivers will compete for $175 in prize money as they maneuver several brand-new log trucks through an intricate maze of obstacles.

The flower and hobby show will be open between 1 and 5 p.m. Saturday in the Sweet Home Union high school building, and the Frontier Days home carnival will run between 11:30 a.m. and midnight. Doors to the high school auditorium will open at 7 p.m. for a final performance of the "Chips 'n Splinters" show. Curtain time is 8 p.m. The free outdoor dance begins at 9 p.m. in the parking lot of the First Sweet Home bank.

Frontier Days officially opened Thursday night with the coronation of Queen Geraldine Guthrie, an initial presentation of "Chips 'n Splinters," and first-night running of the home carnival.

Events on Friday include a children's parade at 10:30 a.m., a soap box derby at 2 p.m., the flower and hobby show between 2:30 and 9 p.m., home carnival activities between 5 p.m. and midnight, and an entirely new second-night presentation of "Chips 'n Splinters" starting at 8 p.m. Twelve local bathing beauties will vie for the title "Miss Sweet Home" during the Friday night "Chips 'n Splinters" show.

Bridge Players Set for Raid

Salem's duplicate bridge players expect another invasion by out-of-town experts when the second August master point of the Elks Bridge club is held Sunday afternoon, August 16.

In the first monthly competition last week local players won but few points but they expect to do better this time.

Only one of the eight master points went to a Salem representative, Mrs. L. W. Fraser upholding local honor in partnership with Mrs. Jose Moritz of Corvallis. At least three life masters and several junior life masters were included among the out-of-town competitors as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harklerod, Mrs. A. Wyley, Mrs. L. Horton, Henry Craig, Mrs. Lucille Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson, Mrs. Stuart Wilson, all of Portland; and Mrs. Lucetta McCoskie and Mrs. Victor Arpke, both of Corvallis.

Among Salem Elks club representatives placing in the master point and in this week's regular tournament were the following Mrs. Rupert L. Park, Mrs. Milto J. D. Parker, Mrs. Paul F. Burris, Mrs. Ward Graham, Mrs. Elsie Day, Charles Tambling, E. W. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ford, Mrs. Arthur S. Binegar, Mrs. C. B. Benson, Mrs. Ass I. Eoff, Ray Kemp, Sam Ramp, Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, Mrs. Dewey Howell, Mrs. Walter A. Barsch, Mrs. Robert McKesson, Mrs. John Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newsom, Mrs. F. C. Lutz, William F. Leary, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Leona Taylor and Mrs. Dorothy Remmey, the latter from Brownsville.

Withdrawal Costly to A.F.L. in Northwest
Portland (AP)—The withdrawal of the carpenters union from the AFL will remove a sizable segment of organized labor from the AFL in the Pacific northwest.

The lumber and sawmill workers union, one of the two big lumber industry unions in this region, is an affiliate of the carpenters. The LSWU claims more than 50,000 workers. The other big lumber industry union is the CIO woodworkers.

Guest Rooms To Be Listed
Information about accommodations to be had either in hotels or motels for State Fair week will be posted on black boards in the lobbies of the Marion and Senator Hotels it was decided at a meeting of the Salem Hotel and Motel Association Thursday night.

The plan also will cover rooms available in private homes, it was said.

For the benefit of tourists the association plans signs to be placed on the highways entering the city to direct travelers to attractions of the city and the valley.

A folder for valley-wide distribution is to be published next week. Wednesday has been set as the deadline for concerns placing advertising in the folder.

One more meeting of the association will be held before State Fair Week.

CENTRAL HOWELL FU
Central Howell — The Central Howell Farmers Union will meet at the school house on Monday evening, Aug. 17 at 8 p.m. There will be reports from the Reserves, Juniors and leaders who attended state camp last week. Members are asked to bring a melon, any variety, for a melon feed following the business meeting.

Salem Students After Master's Degree
Oregon College of Education, Monmouth—At the close of the Oregon College of Education summer session, 10 Salem students have started working for their master's degrees.

Patricia Lee, teacher at Haysville school, has already ended her third summer session while Helen Andrus, Harley Branigan, and Mary Covert have completed two sessions.

Competing their first summer session at OC are: Lillian E. Williams, Jeanne duBuy, Bernice Singree, Adora E. Hanson, Charles C. Holmes, Mabel Sumpter and Lucille Berndt.

These Salem students who all have teaching jobs this fall have received their bachelor of science degree and are all members of the OCE Graduate club.

McKay Extends O&C Salvage

Washington (AP)—Interior Secretary McKay announced Thursday continuation of a program to aid in the salvage of timber from O & C lands in Western Oregon.

He said the Bureau of Land Management's regional administrator at Portland has been given additional authority to issue temporary permits for rights-of-way for logging roads.

Such permits would be for two-year periods, subject to one-year extensions. They may be issued to lumber operators who have entered into agreements on a substantial road system or to applicants negotiating for long-term agreements.

McKay said the administrator also now has authority to issue short-term permits to cross government land for salvage of damaged or dead trees along with cutting of any adjacent green timber needed to make an economic logging job.

Edward Woolley, bureau administrator, said damaged timber should be removed because it deteriorates in value and also is a fire and insect hazard to green timber.

The program is an extension of emergency regulations which went into effect for one year starting June 20, 1952.

Large Scale Frauds Found in N.M. Vote

Albuquerque, N.M. (AP)—The U.S. Senate Elections subcommittee said it may throw out entire precincts in the contested New Mexico senatorial election after members announced they were "astounded and shocked" at evidence of fraud in the voting.

Sen. Frank Barrett, R-Wyo., chairman of the subcommittee, and Sen. Charles Potter, R-Mich., issued a statement that the group may throw out thousands of votes "because of this extensive fraud," after hearing 40 voters testify their ballots had been altered.

HIRE NEW TEACHER
Stayton—Albert Stark, who was hired by the board of school district UH4J to teach Spanish and English, has been forced to resign due to ill health. Miss Freda Thayer of Lyons has been hired to fill the position.

FLIES TO NEW MEXICO
Dallas—Pat Lundy, daughter of J. C. Lundy, 900 Jefferson, Dallas, flew to New Mexico early this week to spend three weeks with friends at the Walden turkey ranch, located just outside of Stanley, N. M. The Waldens are former Dallas residents. Miss Lundy is acting as a junior correspondent in gathering news for the Capital Journal from the Dallas area. She will drive back with friends at the end of her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundy accompanied by Mrs. May Della, have departed for a two-week vacation at Pacific City.
