Bids Called

Financing for the Salem-Portland expressway, estimated to cost $11,600,000 will be made through use of funds made available by the first and second highway bond issues as well as federal aid and state highway funds.

Completion of the entire project is dependent on weather conditions and other factors but estimates by highway department officials place the completion date late in 1956.

When completed the expressway with its north and south lanes divided will provide a fast, shorter modern route highway between the state capital city and Portland.

Land Grabs

Another problem that is coming to the fore, particularly in Oregon is that of the state game commission buying lands for conversion into winter refuges for large game.

Land so acquired is taken off the tax roll, said Cooper. Cooper touched upon the O.&C. lands and said that the association is ready to fight elimination of the lieu tax program through which Oregon counties are reimbursed many million dollars.

The extent of federal ownership of lands, it was revealed is as high as 97 per cent in some western counties. Cecil Campbell of Nevada, reported that 84 per cent of the entire area of that state was in government hands.

Federal ownership of Idaho was reported as 67 per cent while Utah has but 27 per cent of its area in private ownership.
