

Beaver Wins Offer Threat in Title Race

San Francisco, O.P.—The resurgence of the hard luck Portland Beavers and the collapse of the mighty Seattle Rainiers added spice today to a Pacific Coast League race that otherwise was becoming a runaway for the Hollywood Stars.

The Beavers swept a twin bill from Los Angeles yesterday by identical scores of 3-1 and served notice on the Angels that their long term lease on third place was in danger of being broken.

Portland, now two games behind the Angels, was rated a dark horse before the season opened.

Even as Portland seemed on the verge of tearing the league apart, the league was ready to tear the Rainiers apart. Bill Sweeney watched his team lose a double-header to last place Oakland yesterday, 1-0 and 7-3.

Seventh Loss

It marked the seventh loss for the Sweeneys in eight games and dropped them 10 full games behind Hollywood, which divided with San Diego. The Stars won the opener 9-2 and lost the nightcap, 3-1. In the other PCL matinee, San Francisco downed Sacramento 3-2 in the 12th inning of the opener, then dropped the nightcap, 4-1.

Lyman Linde scattered seven Angel hits in the opener to record his 11th victory. The Bevos parlayed four singles into three runs in the first inning, which was all Linde needed.

In the bobtailed nightcap, Jay Heard halted the Stars with two hits and Fletcher Robbe banged two homers, one with a man aboard, to drive in all the runs.

Ends Duel

Bill Howerton brought gloom to Sudville in the ninth inning of the first game when he belted Vern Kindsfather for a home run. The blast ended a scoreless duel between the Seattle right hander and Jim Atkins.

Jim Davis, ace Seattle left-hander, and Tom Lovrich were bombarded for 11 hits in the nightcap.

Four Hitter

San Diego won the nightcap behind Lloyd Dickey who pitched a four-hitter for his sixth triumph.

All Lyons homered to give the angels a 2-2 tie in the ninth inning of the opener, then brought home the clincher with a bases loaded, infield single in the 12th inning.

In the finale, errors by Leo Righetti helped the Sacs score twice in the first and seventh.

The final week of play in the Industrial Softball League gets under way tonight with the second place YMCA attempting to go into a tie with Wolgamotta when they meet Kay Woolen at Phillip's.

In other local action tonight First National Bank takes on Mayflower Milk in the first game at Phillip's Field and in the other game Commercial Seat Covers plays the Postal Clerks at Leslie.

The "Y" now rests a half game out of first place while the Seaters could narrow the margin between first and third down to 1 1/2 games. After tonight both Wolgamotta and the YMCA will have one game remaining to play.

A YMCA loss would give Wolgamotta at least a tie for the league crown. Commercial Seat also has a chance to win since they have more games left to play on their schedule.
