Stein-Willard Service In Early Fall Setting

The First Christian church was decorated with baskets of yellow gladioluses and yellow and bronze chrysanthemums for the wedding Saturday evening when Miss Ruthita Willard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Willard, was married to Gordon Kenneth Stein, son of Mrs. William P. Stein of Canby. Arranged among the flowers were candelabras holding yellow candles. Down the processional aisles was a white cloth and at the pews, marked off with yellow satin streamers, were clusters of the bronze and yellow pom poms.

The Rev. Dudley Strain read the vows for the couple at 8:30 o'clock. For the music, Peter Larson sang and Mrs. K. J. M. Cracrott played the organ.

The bride's dress was of nylon tulle over satin. The bodice and long sleeves and panels down the front of the skirt were of hand-cut Chantilly lace appliqued in diamond pattern, the lace also extending into the train. The lace was studded with sequins in flower design. The three-quarter length veil was arranged from a crown of the lace trimmed with the sequins. The bride carried a tiered fan of lace on which were stephanotis blooms, the bouquet extending in a cascade of satin streamers. Mr. Willard gave his daughter in marriage.

Attendants in Yellow

Miss Marilyn Springer was maid of honor. Mrs. Donna Sawyer was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Billy G. Kelso and Mrs. Maurice Merrill. All wore yellow tulle over taffeta frocks that were fashioned with boat necklines, cap sleeves and bodices embroidered with soutache braid. They wore matching

Trussell-Justis Wedding Aug. 8

A wedding at the First Baptist church Saturday, August 8, was that of Miss Beth Justis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Justis, and Floyd Trussell, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Trussell.

The Rev. Dudley Strain officiated at the 8:30 o'clock service. Miss Martha Rae Pierce and David Pierce lighted the tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length dress of white net over satin skirt and a bodice of lace over satin. The fingertip veil was net. The bride carried a bouquet of pale pink roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Robert Trussell, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was the only attendant.

Flower girl was Janet Rowland, and Fred Davis Pierce was ring bearer.

Best man was William Trussell. Ushers were Cliff Carnine and Roy Loyne.

Following the ceremony, was a reception at the church parlors. Mrs. Ray Etter cut the cake. Mrs. Ivey Pierce and Mrs. Perry Bond poured.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a navy blue suit and white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. Following a trip to the coast, the couple will be at home in Salem.

HOME from a trip north are Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Walker and daughter, Judy. Mr. Walker went to Seattle on business and Mrs. Walker and daughter visited at Tacoma.
