

Miss Kuns Bride at Woodburn

Woodburn — At the Woodburn Church of God, Friday evening, Miss Marcellyn May Kuns of Woodburn was wed to Robert Dale Salisbury of Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuns of Woodburn and Mr. Salisbury is the son of Mrs. Robert Stoutenberg of Salem and Ralph Salisbury of Cove Orchard, Ore.

The Rev. Edward H. Baldwin, pastor of the church, officiated at the service in the presence of 300 guests. The church was decorated with orchid and white gladioluses and white candles.

Soloists were Mrs. Delmer Kuns, sister-in-law of the bride, and Larry Fraiser. Mrs. Robert Adams of Portland accompanied the singers and played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of lace, tulle and taffeta, designed and made by herself, with chapel length train. The veil was of fingertip length. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Karene Kuns, sister of the bride, was honor attendant, wearing a pastel green taffeta frock and carrying a cascade bouquet of orchid gladioluses. Bridesmaids were Miss Arlene Schervem of Woodburn and Miss Mary Lou Hayes of Canby, attired in orchid taffeta with headpieces of taffeta and braided net. They carried bouquets of orchid gladioluses.

Jack Richards of Salem served as best man for Mr. Salisbury and ushers were Paul Sundin of Salem and Richard Fuhr of Portland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kuns chose a rose crepe dress with white accessories with which she wore a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The reception was at the country home of the bride's parents. The serving table was centered with the wedding cake with decorations of maiden hair fern and white gladioluses.

Mrs. George McKinney of LaHabra, Calif., cut the cake and Mrs. Eldon Hart of Woodburn poured. Assisting were Miss Myrna Lipperl of Salem, Miss Eileen Rogers of Woodburn and Miss Mary Salisbury of Salem. Miss Virginia Carpenter of Madras passed the guest book; Miss Barbara Livingston of Woodburn and Mrs. Glen Stornes of Albany were at the gift table. Mrs. Lloyd Waymire and Mrs. Clarence Wampole were in charge of serving.

The couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains with the bride wearing a light blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. They will be at home in Portland after September 1.

Wedding August 9

Miss Joan Lou Hopkins, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zulsdorf of Woodburn, and Melvin James Monnier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Monnier of Hubbard, were married in the Woodburn Church of God, Sunday, August 9.

The Rev. Arthur Goble, pastor of the Woodburn Four-square Community church, performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock.

A color scheme of pink and white was used throughout the wedding and in the floral decorations in the church. Jack Lenhardt, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Herbert Hawley, Jr., another cousin, who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, wore a nylon marquisette over taffeta dress fashioned with a train. Her fingertip veil of marquisette and lace fell from a crown trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and pale pink bouvardia, centered with a white orchid and tied with blue satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Dolores Gusa of Portland was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a pink embroidered organdy ballerina length dress and picture hat. Her bouquet was of pink gladioluses and blue delphiniums. Miss Claudia Hayes and Miss Carmen Roler, both of Woodburn, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were blue and made like the maid of honor's dress.

Flower girls were Barbara and Judy Hawley. Stevie Slover and Gary Hawley were ring bearers, and lighting the tapers were Misses Sonia Avin and Carolyn Lenhardt. Bonnie Gusa and Arlie Lenhardt rolled
