Paris (AP)—The death of Gen. Andre George Corap, 75, was announced Monday. He was in command of French troops when the German army made their big Western Front breakthrough in 1940.

Ark. Ice Box Deaths Now Seen as Murder

West Memphis, Ark. (AP)—A deputy sheriff says a man recently twice threatened the lives of five children found dead in an old ice box.

Deputy Gladstone Williams said, "We plan to do a lot more checking on this point." He declined to identify the man.

Earlier yesterday the father, 34-year-old J. A. Hallman, told newsmen he was sure the children were "murdered" because there were too many "funny things" involved. His wife agreed.

Per Capita Income of U. S. at All-Time High

Washington (AP)—Per capita income of Americans rose to an all time high of $1,639 last year the commerce department reported today.

It arrived at that figure by adding up all income payments to individuals—wages, salaries, interest, dividends, pensions and the net income of farms and other unincorporated business—and dividing that total of $255,000,000,000 by the total U.S. population.
