

TELE-VIEWS

Radio-Television
By DAVE BLACKMER

Once again Tele-Views is returning to the steady routine of pounding out Salem's only locally written daily Radio-TV column from behind 47 keys on our typewriter.

After spending another four days out at the Salem General Hospital this month Tele-Views cannot overlook passing on some of the highlights of the venture to my readers.

After setting Salem radiomen on fire after the last time I was in the hospital, no radio listenership surveys were taken this time.

However, "Living in a Hospital" can be as pleasant as it can be bitter. . . I was in a ward with Ed Reitter of Salem, "Dutch" Harder, 291 Magnolia, Salem, and Carl Woodroffe of Salem.

After a few days of following the general procedure of the hospital the gents in room 312 decided it was time to get even with the nurses that woke us up at 6 a.m. and so eagerly stuck us with our shots. . . An agent was sent out to purchase three water guns. . . Then the fun began.

The nurses fought off our attack with everything including wet wash towels to ice down our backs. . . All in all it was a lot of good clean fun which kept the morale of room 312 way up in the clouds instead of sinking to the bottom.

After the gun fights, bedside partner and partner in crime "Dutch" employed his candy box to get the nurses to return once again to our room.

The entire staff of nurses, from top brass to the aides, were all good sports in the day's events.

So, if one can forget his troubles in a hospital, it can be an exciting and interesting.

Dallas Union Workmen in Sunday Picnic at Park

Dallas—The first annual picnic of local 2714 AFL, held Sunday afternoon in city park drew the largest crowd of the year as the union men and their families raced, participated in tug of war contests and other sports activities.

Activities started with a picnic lunch made up of meat loaf, potato salad, baked beans, buns, hot dogs, ice cream, watermelon and a variety of drinks served by the local.

In athletic competition, Bobby Gunther won the foot-race for seven year olds and younger with Charley Liggett a close second; John Barnes and Jack Powers won the three legged race for 8-10 year old boys with Allen and Corky Powell placing; Dorothy Koop and Linda Eggert won the three-legged competition for eight to 10-year-old girls.

Brownie Fausset brought down the house in the woman's slipper kicking contest as she edged out B. Cantrel for top honors.

In the 11 to 14-year-old wheelbarrow race for boys Raymond Kelson and Leroy Koop pushed and rolled to victory, edging out Danny and Rod Jones in a close contest.

Roberta Raymond and Divna Fisher took first and second places in the potato race for girls of the 11 to 14 age group.

In the feature event of the day pitting the day crew against the night crew of Willamette Valley Lumber company in a tug of war contest, the day crew won.

Tugging for the $10 prize money behind captain Malcolm Lyles of the winning crew were Marlin Edgler, Gary Hanson, Cecil Rockwood, George Cantrell, Carl Guenther, Wilbur Kruger, Frank Fast, George Heppner, Herman Fausset, Pete Koop and Dave Kille. On the rope for the losers was Captain Jack Powers, Wally Watson, Paul Ditzel, Carl Thompson, Bob Hayes, Bruce Werner, Deb Kliever, Herman Reddig, Clark Long, Gene Gallogy and Lenord Legwood.

Ball games for those wishing to participate were conducted on an informal basis with volley ball and soft ball getting the lions share of attention.

First prizes of $1 and second prizes of 50 cents were awarded to all contestants in events other than the tug-of-war.

Union members contacted following the event were enthusiastic about the affair and predicted that the event will grow in size and importance through the coming years. Leticia F. S. Klaws, who acted as master of ceremonies for the various events of the day, was voted a permanent role in that capacity for future affairs. Other entertainment for the day included the playing of records, the singing of Nancy Olson, accompanied by her father, Howard, playing the banjo.

Dallas City band played from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

TV Lines Up Film Stars In Radio, Theatre Fray

By ALINE MOSBY

Hollywood 8/18—Television will unroll its not-so secret weapon in the battle against the movie next month—all the big-name stars it can gather.

Theaters are trying to lure in the customers with 3-D and wide-screen epics. So TV is racing to keep the citizens home in the living room.

The new fall shows begin on TV in September with the networks lining up such filmstars as Ann Southern, Joan Caulfield, Edmund O'Brien, Broderick Crawford, Ann Sheridan, Ray Milland, Ronald Colman, David Niven, Dick Powell, Loretta Young, Celeste Holm and Mickey Rooney.

Even Crawford, Cary Grant, Gary Cooper, Betty Hutton and Gordon MacRae are dickering to make guest star appearances that may lead to regular television shows.

"We're after every movie star we can get," reports Howard Ross, casting director for the Colgate Comedy Hour.

"We've got to get some new box-office. We can't coast by on the past, but we must give the viewers new shows and new faces. It's easier to get stars now—they're even approaching us."

"Television must keep people in their living rooms, and we think the stars can do it."

The TV favorites from last season will be back, too—Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, Red Skelton, Martin and Lewis, Jimmy Durante, Jackie Gleason, Groucho Marx, Jack Benny, Donald O'Connor, Burns and Allen, Marie Wilson, Gene Autry, Eve Arden and Red Buttons. Fred Allen also returns with a new show.

Radio Sales Up

Radio, buried by some prophets years ago, is far from expired this fall. Trade papers report the sale of radio sets is soaring above last year's mark.

NBC is presenting two new stars of the airwaves, Jimmy Stewart and Rosemary Clooney. Many television stars, including Milland, Benny, Dinah Shore, Marx, Martin and Lewis and Cantor, have radio shows, too.

Other radio perennials who'll return include Edgar Bergen, Lionel Barrymore, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope.

Mark Jubilees At Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—Golden and silver jubilees were observed Aug. 15 at Convent Queen of Angels, Mt. Angel, by three Sisters—Sister Mary Bertha, O. S. B., Sister Mary Carmela, O. S. B., and Sister Mary Irmengard, O.S.B.

Sister M. Bertha, the Golden Jubilarian, spent many years at the different branch houses staffed by the Benedictine Sisters, including Portland, Oregon City, Silverton and Albany. She is now at the motherhouse where she unconsciously captures the attention of many visitors who see a paint-bespangled nun indulging in her avocation in and around the Convent buildings.

Serving in various capacities as high school and college instructor and librarian these past 25 years, Sister M. Carmela is stationed at the motherhouse at present, where she teaches high school and college classes on the campus. She, too, has painting as a hobby, but uses oils in preference to wall paints.

Sister M. Irmengard, silver jubilarian, has been engaged in domestic duties both at the Convent and in the Abbey kitchen, where she works at present.

During the Jubilee Mass, offered by Reverend Sebastian Terhaar, chaplain, the Golden Jubilarian renewed her vows and received the golden wreath and ring, symbolic of her religious profession made 50 years ago. A program was given later in the day.

In the evening the Sisters assembled in the chapel where Compline and the traditional profession hymn, closed the festive day.

PILOT'S BODY FOUND
Greifensee, Switzerland (AP)—The body of a U. S. bomber pilot, trapped in the wreckage of a B17 Flying Fortress for more than nine years, has been recovered from the bottom of Greifensee Lake. Local authorities and many Swiss newspapers paid tribute to the pilot.
