Woodburn

Woodburn—Mrs. Ada Sheldon and Mrs. Ida Morrow who have been visiting at the Fred Rogers home in Woodburn for several weeks have returned to their home in Nebraska City, Neb. The two women are sisters of Mrs. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coman, Teddy and Mary, returned Sunday night after a short vacation from Thursday to Sunday at Victoria, B.C.

Frank P. Doerfler, superintendent of the Woodburn schools, and Thomas Leup of the MacLaren school for boys, were initiated into Phi Delta Kappa, national professional fraternity, recently at the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ahrens returned this week-end from a vacation in Seattle, Wash.

Guests at the Frank Wright home during the past week were Mrs. Lester Erickson and three children of Oak Harbor, Wash. Mrs. Erickson is a daughter of the Wrights. Her husband is in Japan with the navy and is expected home about Oct. 1.

Capt. and Mrs. Earl J. Jennings and children, Michael, David, George and Barbara, left Friday after a visit of several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Jennings and Mrs. R. L. Thompson. They recently returned from Germany. They will visit with relatives in Altadena and Norwalk, Calif., before Capt. Jennings reports to Camp Luis Obispo on Aug. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moon and son, Richard, left this week-end for a fishing trip in the John Day country. They expect to be absent about a week.

Donald

Donald — Leon E. Pendleton, 29, of Donald, suffered head lacerations early Sunday morning when his car went out of control on the Pacific highway about 1 1/2 miles north of the Gervais junction. The car went into the ditch and then came back onto the highway again.

He was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital. His companion, Charles Fowler, 26, of Lowell, was not hurt. The car had to be towed away.

Harmon Yearly underwent major surgery at the Veterans hospital in Portland, last Friday, and his wife reports that he is getting along as well as can be expected, and she intends to bring him home the last of the week. Mrs. Yearly is superintendent of nurses for Marion county, with offices in Salem.

Louis Labbe, a resident of Donald for many years and now living in Salem, was a visitor in the Donald vicinity last week. Included in his visit were Mrs. D. E. Green and Mrs. Francis Mathoit.

Mrs. Frank Brouhard of Vancouver, Wash., formerly of Donald, spent some time here last week.

Of the wearers of glasses in the United States, 56.4 per cent are females and 43.6 per cent males.

Silverton

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Mill Baum have been elected as adult counsellors of the Methodist Youth group, their supervision to begin Sunday, August 30.

With Sharon Beals, president, as official hostess for the senior-high-aged Methodist Youth Fellowship members, and Sibyl Barr directing devotions during the vesper service, the group held its regular meeting at Silver Falls State park the first of the week.

The lay members of the church are making preparations for the appearance in sermon during the worship hour, Sunday, Aug. 23, of their bishop, the Rt. Rev. Dr. A. Raymond Grant of Portland. At this time the Rev. Douglas Harrell will be at Suttle Lake attending the Methodist ministers' retreat there.

In a "service of recognition" on Aug. 16, at the Methodist church, the appointed successor to Ben Sprick from the chairmanship of the church board of the past 11 years, will be accepted in the ceremonial of recognition.

Two women, locally well-known, are to enter hospitals, Monday, for surgery, both requiring blood transfusions of unusual type.

Mrs. Marie Riveness is at Salem Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Gloria Bock-Brewer, now of Portland, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Bock, Silverton, will be under treatment at Portland Providence hospital Monday in preparation for surgery, Tuesday morning.

Her mother, Mrs. Bock, is caring for Mrs. Brewer's home during her hospitalization.

Broadacres

Broadacres—Maurice Kauffman, son of Mrs. Ben Kauffman of Broadacres, who was stricken with polio last fall, and has been in Providence hospital since then, has been moved to the Love Rest Home on Flanders St., Portland. He has been out of the iron lung for two weeks and is now in a rocking bed. Several months ago one of the Kiwanis clubs of Portland gave Maurice a television set for his room, which he enjoys very much and shared with other patients in the hospital who were able to visit his room.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kauffman of Broadacres attended a family reunion at the home of Bill Kauffman in Hubbard Sunday. The celebration was in honor of Edward K. Kauffman, who lives in Heston, Kans., but is visiting here this summer. This reunion is for all the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. (Mattie) Kauffman.

Unionvale

Unionvale — Pfc. Edward Clevenger, son of Edward Clevenger of Unionvale, is scheduled to arrive in San Francisco, Calif., from Korea one day earlier than was first reported, according to his father who received word Friday evening.

Edward Clevenger and his brother, Leonard Clevenger, also of Unionvale, will leave by automobile one day earlier than had been planned to meet the returned liberated Korean war prisoner.

Dairy cattle normally are bred before reaching full growth.

Clans Elect '53 Officers at Reunions in Silverton Park

Silverton — Officers elected at the 49th annual reunion of the Taylor clan, Sunday, Aug. 16, at Silverton city park included: President, P. Dixon Van Ausdell; vice president, Gordon T. VanCleave; and secretary-treasurer, Lorraine Taylor Van Ausdell, to serve for the coming year.

With Mrs. Ivan Brown at the portable organ, the large group sang hymns and old-time popular songs. Special numbers were a vocal solo by Cathy Irons and trumpet solos by Jerry Munson.

The Taylors are descendants of Samuel and Augusta Taylor and George and Rachel Taylor, who came from Ontario, Canada, in 1880 and 1882, settling in the Salem and adjacent areas.

Present from Salem were Edith E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ivan Brown, LaVerne Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Higgins, Julia and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dixon Van Ausdell; from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Fuhrman and Chuck, Mr. and Mrs. Charler T. Parker, from Canby, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bonney; from Amity, Mrs. Martha V. Brown; from Englewood, Colo., Mrs. Gene Irons, Kathy and Michael; from Molalla, Mrs. Homer Munson and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Taylor; and from Silverton, V. A. Van Cleave and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Van Cleave and Maurine.

Mrs. Fred Muller (Elizabeth Wenger) of Spring Valley, near Salem, and her cousin, Mrs. John Rand (Elva Dick) of Portland, were responsible for the first annual picnic observance of the coming to Evergreen district of their pioneer grandparents in 1888, Mr. and Mrs. Nickolis Dick (Elizabeth Kaderly), from Wisconsin.

Descendants of the four children of the Dicks made up the clan membership.

The reunion of 68 relatives who were present at the first meeting Sunday in Silverton city park made up the group.

The four children of the Nickolis Dicks were Mrs. John Brunner (Julia Dick), Mrs. Robert Wenger (Pauline Dick), John Dick and Oscar Dick.

Mrs. Muller is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Wenger, and Mrs. Rand is the daughter of Oscar Dick.

Seiler, Clayton Wenger, USN, Clarice Carolyn Rempel, USN, Gerald Rempel, Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Omholt, Louise and Norma Omholt, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Muller; from Pratum, Oscar Wenger.

From Silverton were Robert, William, Eldon, Ed and Alma Wenger, Jake Dick, Johnny Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McKinney, Glenda, Elma and Eldon McKinney, Mrs. Leah Dick, Mrs. Dina Dick; from Woods, Mrs. Lew Verrier; and from Vancouver, Wash., Claus and Hazel Buhman, John G. Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny R. Brunner and Carolyn and Clarence Brunner.

The Catholic Order of Foresters from Mt. Angel observed its annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 16, at the city park in Silverton.

Around 250 people enjoyed a day of swimming, horseshoe pitching, ball playing and luncheon.

The members of the recently-organized family court of Silverton were invited as guests.

The state spiritual director, Father Aleuin, and his brother, M. Heibel of Portland, attended for a brief period during the afternoon.

Refreshments for the adults as well as for the children were furnished by the Mt. Angel court. The Foresters asked expression of their appreciation to the city of Silverton for the day's pleasure of the park, to be included in the report given the press.

The program was supervised by Bill Blum, chief ranger of the men Foresters, and chief ranger Angela Ebner of the lady foresters.

Serving refreshments to the children were Mrs. Ed Hammer.

Albert Dutton was elected noble grand; Ted Kayler, vice grand, and Frank Yanness, secretary of Molalla lodge No. 184, IOOF, at the annual picnic held in Silverton park, Sunday, Aug. 16, with 35 adults and 15 children enjoying the picnic dinner and a day of sports.

Nine of the 12 subordinate granges of Marion county Pomona were represented at the annual picnic, Sunday, Aug. 16, at Silverton city park, when more than 75 grangers attended.

Horseshoe pitching, cards and visiting featured the day's entertainment, with the weather ideal for an outdoor affair.

Officially responsible for the success of the picnic were Mrs. Ruth Johnson of Macleay, Bob Barnes of Waldo Hills, M. A. Dunn of North Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Specht and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers, all of Silverton grange.
