Radio-Television

By DAVE BLACKMER

Looks like a battle of surveys for Salem folks this coming fall. Tele-Views may have precipitated same with our survey conducted about a month ago in the Salem General Hospital. Since, a survey conducted by the Klasic Photo Shop has been distributed by KSLM. Now KGAE is going to combat this survey with not one, not two, but THREE surveys, one of which is now in progress. . . . With all the surveys being conducted people will start leaving their phones off the hooks to eliminate committing themselves to what station they listen to.

Salem Man Climbs Ladder!

Rudy Pfeiffer, Saturday night Hollywood Bowl announcer and former KGAE disc jockey, is moving up the ladder in radiomotion with his own all night radio record show on Oregon City's KGON.

Rudy's show is the only all night disc show in the Portland area. The dee jay show was inaugurated last Monday night. . . . Good luck, Rudy.

Unionizing of the local radio and television men is moving along with rapidity. Another meeting was held Tuesday night at the Marion Hotel for the employees only.

Lawrence Harvey, owner of Salem television station channel 24 is back from his trip to Europe. No reports have been issued as to when the gent who holds the key to Salem television will be in the Capitol city.
