Dodgers Out for Yank Blood After Toppling Giants

New York (AP)—The Dodgers were out for blood today—Yankee blood.
And they couldn't hate the sight of those Yankee uniforms more even if the Dodgers were all Confederate war veterans.
Having killed off the Giants, Dodger manager Charles Dressen set two new ambitious goals, both aimed at showing up the world champion bombers, even before they meet in the world series.

Dressen wants the Dodgers to clinch the pennant before the Yankees and he would like to top the Yankees' American league winning streak of 19 games, set when he was a Yankee coach in 1947.

Brooklyn's 7-5 triumph over New York yesterday, achieved with a three-run rally in the eighth when Carl Furillo and Duke Snider drove in the tallies with key hits, extended the Dodgers scoreless relief pitching mark to 2 1/2 innings. Ben Wade struck out two batters to cool off the Giants in the third after Hank Thompson hit a three-run homer and Dusty Rhodes got a two-run elout.

Brooklyn stayed 8 1/2 games ahead of Milwaukee which topped the Reds 3-2 on Andy Patko's homer in the ninth as Warren Spahn pitched a five-hitter for his 16th victory. Ted Kluszewski hit his 37th homer for Cincinnati.

In the American league, the Yankees went 8 1/2 games ahead of the White Sox by topping Washington 3-0 on Jim McDonald's four hit job while the Browns edged Chicago 4-3 in 10 innings with two runs on a single by Vern Stephens, a triple by Les Moss and a squeeze bunt by Vic Wertz.

Ted Williams hit a long two-run homer for the 6-4 victory margin as the Red Sox defeated the Athletics on the relief pitching of Ellis Kinder, who retired 10 batters in a row for his ninth victory. Gus Zernial hit two homers for the A's giving him 31 and the league lead.

Billy Hoelt pitched the Tigers to a 4-2 victory over the skidding Indians as Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer.
The Pirates ended a four-game losing streak by beating the Phillies, 5-3, handing Curt Simmons his 11th loss against 10 wins.

The Cubs beat the Cardinals, 5-3, getting what proved to be the winning run on Dick Schofield's base-loaded error.

U. of O. Player Caught in Draft

Eugene (AP)—Oregon lost a letterman football guard to the draft today.
Word was received that Harry Mondale, 200-pound letterman guard from Elizabeth, Pa., was drafted. Mondale, who lettered in 1951 but did not play last season, had nailed down a first team berth in spring practice.
Coach Len Casanova said he probably would shift a tackle to plug the hole.
Mondale was the second Duck to be drafted this summer. Stan Dmochowsky, quarterback and baseball pitcher, was inducted earlier.
