

Pair Wed Recently At Albany

Albany—A wedding of late summer was that of Miss Nancy Ann Brenneman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Brenneman of Albany, and Robert Lynn Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Anderson of Portland. The late afternoon ceremony was in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. Morton Booth reading the vows.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioluses, palms, and philodendron. White candles decorated the altar and the bridal aisle was marked by white gladioluses and white satin bows. Mrs. Arden Golin and Mrs. Glen Mick lighted the candles. Mrs. Glenn Taylor played the wedding music, and accompanied Wayne Wagner and Janet McCracken, who sang.

The bride's dress was of white nylon tulle over white satin with a bouffant skirt at the popular waltz length. The sweetheart neckline was trimmed in pearls. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists. Narrow bands of white satin adorned the skirt of nylon tulle. The bride's veil was of imported illusion, held in place by a cap of pearl-embroidered satin. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and a single white orchid on a Bible. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Merle B. Aden, a sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and Mrs. Robert Rondeau of Corvallis and Miss Barbara Watt, Grants Pass, sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore ballerina length dresses of aqua tulle over taffeta with matching tulle stoles. The skirts were arranged in multiple tiers. They wore sprays of white flowers in their hair and they carried fan-shaped bouquets of white gladioluses.

Merle B. Aden, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers included Calvin Brenneman of Albany, cousin of the bride, Donald Remlinger, James Kuse and Mikal Mikkelsen, all of Portland.

The mother of the bride wore a dusty rose crepe dress with lace jacket, a black feather hat and pink gloves. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose gray and pink figured paper taffeta dress with a small pink hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was also pink roses.

Following the ceremony the 250 wedding guests attended the reception at the church. Crystal candelabrum flanked the wedding cake and fern, lilies and Cecil Brunner roses encircled the cake. Around the room were baskets of pink gladioluses, sword fern and Shasta daisies. Assisting at the coffee urns were Mrs. William E. Nash of Klamath Falls, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Morton Booth. Miss Elaine Wallis, Portland, and Mrs. Leon Widmer and Mrs. Earl Kenagy of Albany served the punch. At the bride's table was Mrs. Lloyd A. Johnson, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. David Packard, Miss McCracken and Mrs. C. R. Fream of Roseburg. Mrs. Herman Luther and Mrs. Jed Looney were in charge of the table decorations and the reception. Mrs. Stanley Barron, cousin of the bride, passed the guest book.

After the reception the bridal couple left by auto for the Oregon beaches and California. For going-away the bride wore a dusty pink wool suit with navy accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The Andersons will be at home after August 16 at 1076 S. W. Gaines Rd., Portland.

Griffiths Feted At Reception

Lebanon — A late summer reception which attracted many friends was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffith at the Christian church for their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Griffith of Los Angeles.

The John Griffiths were wed in Shatto chapel of the First Congregational church on May 29, the service just preceding their departure by plane for England, with the Roger Wagner Chorale. Mr. Griffith sings with the group, and his bride is one of its duo-piano accompanists.

In addition to singing during coronation week in London at Royal Festival hall, the chorale gave additional concerts on the continent, two in Paris at Salle Gaveau and Notre Dame, and in Amsterdam and The Hague. On their return to the United States, the Griffiths came to Lebanon to visit his parents before going to Los Angeles where Mr. Griffith is majoring in voice and piano at the University of Southern California, in addition to his professional work.

During the Sunday afternoon reception, friends enjoyed singing by Mr. Griffith in response to many requests and Mrs. Griffith's playing in addition to her accompanying Mr. Griffith's solos.

Mr. Henry Hooze officiated at the 7 o'clock service. The altar was decorated with a white archway, a side tall column-like pedestals holding baskets of golden gladioluses and candelabrum with golden tapers. The pews were marked with golden gladioluses and satin ribbons. Lighting the candle were Erma Regier and Tom Reimer. The bridegroom sang before the ceremony, and Richard Patskowsky sang during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white slipper satin, fashioned with a tight bodice and overskirt of embroidered nylon net, a high neckline and yoke edged with Chantilly lace. For her jewelry, the bride wore a single strand of pearls, which was a gift of the groom. The bridal veil was fingertip length and held in place by a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of blush white rosebuds and stephanotis and tied with narrow white ribbon, edged in gold.

Miss Joanne Hildebrand was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Aldene Friesen and Miss Betty LuWall. They wore identical dresses of shades of green graduating from dark to light. Their headresses were of golden daisies and they carried net fans and wore golden daisy corsages.

Irvin Regier, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Harold Regier and Leroy Williams. Ushers were Bill Reimer and Lyle Flaming.

Mrs. Reimer chose a dusty rose crepe dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with white accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

At the reception, Mrs. Irvin Regier poured and Mrs. Harold Regier presided at the punch bowl. Francis Regis passed the guest book. Twilight Ceremony At Albany

Albany—At a twilight service at St. Peter's Episcopal church, August 7, Miss Mary Leever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Leever of Albany, exchanged vows with Richard Dale Drushella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drushella of Scio.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. H. Bernard Lamer, Jr., at 7:30 o'clock. White gladioluses and daisies decorated the altar of the church. Mrs. Stanley Baylis sang, and Mrs. Donald Wimer played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was of white nylon net and lace over white satin with a waltz length skirt topped with a lace bolero jacket. Her short veil fell from a lace halo hat. She carried a bouquet of two green orchids with streamers of stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Miss Nancy Pullen of Springfield was the only attendant. She wore a blue dotted Swiss waltz length dress and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds.

Duane Drushella was best man for his brother. Harmon and Lyle Drushella, brothers of the bridegroom, and Dennis McFadden of Portland were ushers.

Mrs. Leever attended her daughter's wedding in a blue dress with a single orchid as her corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in plum colored crepe with rose pink trim and wore a pink rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was at the Cascade room of the Hotel Albany. The bride's cake was served by Miss Fern Leever, aunt of the bride, with Mrs. Harmon Drushella and Mrs. Duane Drushella assisting. Pouring coffee was Mrs. C. P. Knox of Portland and Mrs. Elvian Drushella of Albany, an aunt of the bridegroom, served the punch. Mrs. A. T. Peterson arranged the bride's table for the reception and Mrs. H. A. Lambers did the floral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Drushella left after the reception for the coast where they spent a few days at Surtides. For going away, the bride wore a brown suit, gold pillbox hat and white accessories, with her corsage of green orchids.

Mr. Drushella is to leave shortly for the European theater with the U. S. army. Ms. Drushella will resume her work as student technologist at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.
