Scott-Schryock Wedding Aug. 5

Wed at a simple ceremony the evening of Wednesday, August 5, at the Foursquare church, were Miss Dorothy Schryock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schryock, and Pvt. Donald William Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Scott. The Rev. Roy Worthington read the vows for the couple at 8 o'clock before a setting of palms and baskets of yellow and orchid gladioluses. Thurman Krater was soloist, Patricia Fagg the organist. The bride wore a white linen suit with white hat, and she carried an orchid on a white Bible. Mr. Schryock gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Myrna Boyce was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Roy Bloom was best man.

Carol Curtis Pattern

Campus Vestee. Just as pretty as it can be in red, white and blue wool yarn! Unusual, too, as the colored yarn is threaded through the meshes of the wide crocheted background stitches producing a most handsome effect! Back in plain color. Wedding at Sweet Home

Sweet Home — A wedding August 16 at the Bethel Lutheran church was that of Miss Lois Lohmann, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Lohmann, and Clifford Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paul of Dorchester, Wis.

The Rev. Lohmann, father of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. The church sanctuary was decorated with large baskets of white gladioluses and the altar with baby gladioluses. Mrs. Wanda Galster, of Lebanon, was soloist, and was accompanied by Miss Wanda Galster of Sweet Home. The bride wore a waltz length dress of white imported organdy and lace over taffeta faille, fashioned with a jacket of lace that buttoned down the front and ended in a turn-out. The bride's jewelry was an earring and necklace set of rhinestones, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride's bouquet was of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Leona Peyer of Rapids, Wis., was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of pale pink and green net. Her nosegay bouquet was of green tinted baby gladioluses.

Leo Hendrich, of Clintonville, Wis., cousin of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Royce Hinton and Leon Cline.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue nylon dress and navy and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom wore a gray and pink nylon print dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of cream baby gladioluses.

The reception was in the parish hall. Miss Mathilde Lutz, of Clintonville, Wis., aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Royce Hinton, Mrs. Leon Cline, Mrs. Eugene Hipp, Mrs. Aden Arnold and Mrs. S. M. Annan assisted with the serving of the punch and coffee. Mrs. Margaret Goebel was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Ester Green and Mrs. Richard Boehl were in charge of the gift table.

After a short trip to the coast, the couple will be at home for a short time at 13th and N streets in Sweet Home and then will move to Wilmington, N. C., where Capt. Paul will be stationed until next January when he will be discharged from the service.

East Germans Must Report

Berlin (AP)—Fifteen top men of the East German Communist government flew by Russian plane to Moscow today to hear from Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov what the Kremlin really means by its proposal for German unity talks.

Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl said at the Schoenefeld Airport that his delegation regards the trip as "a most important step" for the future of Germany. And he added: "Our people need unity, democracy and a peace treaty as soon as possible. Negotiations in Moscow will be a decisive step in the fulfillment of this goal."

Unander to Speak At Children's Farm

Laying of the corner stone and acceptance of a new chapel at the Children's Farm Home, near Corvallis, is scheduled for 3:30 p.m., August 30, with Sig B. Unander, state treasurer, the principal speaker.

The home is a project of the Oregon WCTU although its support comes from many sources.

C. L. Starr, president of the board of trustees of the home, will preside during the cornerstone ceremonies. Presentation of the building will be by Architect Donald W. Edmondson, Contractor, H. L. Shields, and Harry C. Seymour, chairman of the buildings and ground committee.

Acceptance will be by C. L. Starr for the board; Mrs. Fred J. Toozee, president of the Oregon WCTU, and Andrew J. Vandervort, one time guest of the home.

Traffic Safety Award Won by Ashland

Ashland (AP)—This city owns a national traffic safety award made because it is less than one week away from a three-year record without a traffic fatality.

Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry presented the award, a plaque, to Police Chief Vern Smith at a Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday. Ashland's last traffic fatality occurred Aug. 25, 1950.

Haynes yesterday signed a financial settlement offered by the crooner, under which she will receive $800 as a down payment and $100 a week support.

School Needs

(Continued from Page 1) new construction. Estimates for the 1954-55 school year call for an enrollment of 334,223, an increase of 20,634 over this year's total, which will take another $20,634,000 in new construction.

In addition to this increase in enrollment a "school facilities survey" completed a year ago by the State Department of Education in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Education, revealed that 26,059 Oregon school children were being housed in "unsatisfactory" buildings. Estimated cost of replacing these buildings is $26,059,000. That makes a total of just under $70 million the school districts of the state are being called on to spend for new construction in the current biennium.

"And they will do it," Turnbull declared, citing the fact that every few days brings reports of new bond issues authorized and new construction contracts awarded.

The amount, however, is a staggering one and more than double actual expenditures of $33,300,000 for new construction and additions in the biennium from July 1, 1950, to June 30, 1952. This expenditure covered 70 new school buildings and additions to 50 other buildings.

Most of the "unsatisfactory" conditions uncovered by the school facilities survey have already been corrected or are being corrected in plans which have been approved by the Department of Education, Turnbull said.

So far this year the department has received reports on 65 new school buildings on which contracts have been awarded representing a total of approximately 8 million dollars. Included in this list are 49 new elementary schools with a total of 217 class rooms and 16 new high schools with 170 class rooms.

Admittedly this list is very incomplete, according to A. L. Beck, director of school house planning with the state department, who expects the year's

Morse Claims G. M. Favored

Washington (AP)—Senator Wayne Morse plans to demand a congressional investigation of his charge that General Motors Corp. "is receiving favored treatment by the Defense Department." The Oregon Independent said Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson "is discriminating in favor" of the huge corporation which he formerly headed in the awarding of defense contracts.

He said on a radio program last night ABC's "Cross-Fire" that he has been conducting his own inquiry and will ask the Senate Armed Services committee to make a "full and complete investigation" after Congress meets in January.

Morse said that some companies manufacturing aircraft jet engines have been barred from participating in future contract bidding. He said he had "talked to some of these people in my office."

Putnam is very well pleased with the school situation in Oregon generally. Standards have been gradually increased, the building situation appears to be well in hand and the teacher supply is adequate to the immediate needs.

"Of course we will still have to use a number of teachers with emergency certificates in the elementary schools but all schools will be able to open with full staffs," Putnam said. Putnam explained that while Oregon's training schools are not turning out enough teachers to meet the demand, Oregon's better salary scale is at from other states, particularly the Middle West.

While many of these are unable to qualify immediately under Oregon's higher requirements they do qualify after a few months in summer school and in the meantime are permitted to teach with emergency certificates. Twenty-two hundred of these certificates were issued last year and approximately the same number will be issued this year.

Traditionally Labor Day marks the end of the vacation period. This year, however, due to the lateness of the harvest, opening of schools will be delayed in some districts until Sept. 14 and in a few districts until Sept. 21.

104 Sick GIs Sail for S.F.

Inchon, Korea (AP)—The hospital ship Haven sailed Thursday for San Francisco with 104 sick and wounded American servicemen freed from Communist prison camps in the past two weeks.

The Haven will stop briefly at Yokosuka, Japan, to take aboard more patients. Unless there is an unexpected delay, the great white ship will dock in San Francisco Sept. 14.
